PRACTICE AREAS

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether respondent satisfied the statutory and court-rule requirements for reinstatement to the practice of law after suspension.
2. Whether respondent should be reinstated based on clear and convincing evidence of compliance, character and fitness, and the public interest.

HOLDINGS

1. Respondent satisfied the requirements for reinstatement because clear and convincing evidence established that she met the applicable rule requirements, complied with the suspension order and court rules, possessed the requisite character and fitness to practice law, and that reinstatement was in the public interest.

KEY QUOTATIONS

*“having determined, by clear and convincing evidence, that (1) respondent has satisfied the requirements of Rules of the Appellate Division, Third Department (22 NYCRR) § 806.16 (c) (5), (2) respondent has complied with the order of suspension and the rules of this Court, (3) respondent has the requisite character and fitness to practice law, and (4) it would be in the public interest to reinstate respondent to the practice of law” ([1])

*“respondent's motion for reinstatement is granted; and it is further ORDERED that respondent is reinstated as an attorney and counselor-at-law, effective immediately.” ([1])

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

DalCortivo had previously been suspended from practicing law by an October 2021 order of the Third Department. She submitted a motion, affidavit, and exhibit seeking reinstatement. The court found that she had complied with the suspension order and court rules, satisfied the applicable reinstatement requirements, possessed the requisite character and fitness, and that reinstatement would serve the public interest.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Kathleen Mary DalCortivo was suspended from the practice of law by an October 2021 order of the Third Department. She moved for reinstatement, and the Attorney Grievance Committee submitted responsive correspondence. The court granted the motion and reinstated her effective immediately.
