

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA, LAFAYETTE DIVISION

Benita Cruz Antonio v. U.S. Immigration & Customs Enforcement

Cruz Antonio · No. Civil Action No. 26-404-P · Decided April 7, 2026

SUMMARY

A magistrate judge recommends sua sponte dismissal without prejudice of an immigration detainee’s 28 U.S.C. § 2241 habeas petition for failure to prosecute after court mail was returned as undeliverable and the petitioner failed to provide a new address. The recommendation relies on Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b), the court’s inherent docket-control authority, and applicable objection procedures under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C) and Rule 72(b).

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the petition should be dismissed without prejudice for failure to prosecute when the petitioner failed to maintain a current mailing address and did not comply with an order to file amended pleadings.
2. Whether the court may dismiss the action sua sponte under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) and its inherent power to control its docket.

HOLDINGS

1. The magistrate judge recommended that the petition be dismissed without prejudice, sua sponte, for failure to prosecute because the petitioner failed to provide a current address after the court's order was returned as undeliverable.

KEY QUOTATIONS

"Failure to do so shall be considered cause for dismissal for failure to prosecute." (Page 1)

"A party's failure to file written objections to the proposed findings, conclusions and recommendation set forth above, within fourteen (14) days after being served with a copy shall bar that party, except upon grounds of plain error, from attacking on appeal the proposed factual findings and legal conclusions that were accepted by the district court and that were not objected to by the aforementioned party." (Page 2)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Benita Cruz Antonio, an immigration detainee, filed a pro se petition for a writ of habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 while detained in Louisiana. The court ordered her to file amended pleadings, but the order was returned by the Postal Service as undeliverable because the detainee could not be found. She did not inform the court of a new mailing address.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner filed the § 2241 petition on February 9, 2026, while detained at the South Louisiana ICE Processing Center. On February 12, 2026, the court ordered her to file amended pleadings within 30 days. The order was returned on March 5, 2026, marked "RETURN TO SENDER- Detainee Not Found," and petitioner did not notify the court of a new address. The matter was referred to Magistrate Judge Mark L. Hornsby, who recommended dismissal without prejudice under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) and the court's inherent docket-control authority.
