QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether the State should receive an extension of time to file its appellee's brief.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“The State’s motion is GRANTED, IN PART. The State’s brief is due to be filed no later than November 19, 2014.”

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

This order concerns appellate briefing deadlines rather than the merits of the underlying criminal case. Escalante filed his appellant's brief on September 19, 2014. The State sought an extension of time to file its brief, and the court extended the deadline to November 19, 2014, rather than the requested December 4, 2014 date.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The appeal was pending in the Fourth Court of Appeals of Texas from the 452nd District Court of Edwards County, Texas, trial court cause number 1679. After Escalante filed his brief on September 19, 2014, the State requested a forty-five-day extension, through December 4, 2014, to file its brief. The appellate court granted the motion in part and set November 19, 2014, as the deadline.
