

SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

In re E.N.V.

248 So. 3d 51 (Fla. 2018) · Decided July 2, 2018

SUMMARY

The document sets forth conditions of probation imposed on an applicant for admission to The Florida Bar. The conditions address sobriety, substance-abuse monitoring and treatment, reporting obligations, residence in Florida, and potential suspension or termination of the applicant's license for noncompliance.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	Supreme Court of Florida
JURISDICTION	Florida
DECIDED	July 2, 2018
DISPOSITION	other
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	The Supreme Court of Florida entered an order placing the Applicant's license to practice law on probation pursuant to a consent agreement and imposing conditions governing the probationary period.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	Published opinion; the provided excerpt is an order imposing case-specific probationary conditions.

TOPICS

administrative law

PRACTICE AREAS

legal ethics attorney discipline bar admission

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The Applicant entered into a rehabilitation contract with Florida Lawyers Assistance, Inc. on November 27, 2013. The order requires documented sobriety, abstinence from alcohol and nonprescribed controlled substances, participation in treatment and support programs, and periodic substance screening. It also requires the Applicant to remain in Florida during probation and to report arrests, prosecutions, and practice-related grievances or complaints.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The provided excerpt reflects the Supreme Court of Florida's final disciplinary or conditional-admission order. The order establishes a two-year probationary period and directs The Florida Bar to monitor compliance with the Consent Agreement.

DISPOSITION

other