QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether the stipulated attorney-fee award should be approved under the Equal Access to Justice Act.
- How the EAJA award should be paid if Plaintiff owes a debt to the federal government.

HOLDINGS

- The court approved and awarded Plaintiff $10,338.40 in attorney fees pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act.

2. If the Commissioner confirms that Plaintiff owes no debt subject to federal treasury offset, payment shall be made by check payable and mailed to Plaintiff's counsel; if Plaintiff owes such a debt, any remaining funds after offset shall be made payable to Plaintiff and mailed to counsel's address.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Based upon the Stipulation of the parties, it is ORDERED that attorney fees in the amount of $10,338.40 are hereby awarded to Plaintiff, pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act (EAJA), 28 U.S.C. § 2412.”

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The parties stipulated to an award of attorney fees under the Equal Access to Justice Act. The requested award was $10,338.40. The court also addressed the procedure for payment if Plaintiff owed a debt subject to the federal treasury offset program.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Following litigation involving Plaintiff's Social Security claim, the parties submitted a stipulation requesting an EAJA attorney-fee award. The district court ordered payment of $10,338.40 to Plaintiff, subject to any federal treasury offset for debts owed to the Government, and ordered that no costs or expenses be paid.
