

FIRST COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS AT HOUSTON

Clifford Hall v. AT&T, Inc.

Hall v. AT&T · No. 01-15-00491-CV · Decided August 27, 2015

SUMMARY

This document is a joint and agreed motion by Clifford Hall and AT&T, Inc. to dismiss an appeal with prejudice after resolving the matter. The parties request that each bear its own costs and attorneys' fees.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	First Court of Appeals of Texas at Houston
JURISDICTION	Texas
DECIDED	August 27, 2015
DOCKET	01-15-00491-CV
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	The parties filed a joint and agreed motion requesting dismissal with prejudice of the appeal and all claims asserted or that could have been asserted on appeal.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	none
PARTIES	Clifford Hall v. AT&T, Inc.

TOPICS

appellate procedure civil procedure remedies

PRACTICE AREAS

appellate procedure civil procedure remedies

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the appeal should be dismissed with prejudice pursuant to the parties' joint and agreed motion.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The parties stated that they had resolved the matter and all issues in the appeal or case pending before the First Court of Appeals. They jointly requested dismissal with prejudice, with each party bearing its own costs and attorney fees.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The matter was on appeal from the 281st Judicial District Court of Harris County, Texas. The parties represented that they had resolved the matter and requested dismissal with prejudice, with each party bearing its own costs and attorney fees.

Retrieved from lawtools.ai · <https://lawtools.ai/cases/federal/first-court-of-appeals-of-texas-at-houston/2015/clifford-hall-v-at-and-t-inc-33usna8t>