

SUPREME COURT OF NEVADA

Safari v. Modjtahed

Safari · No. 82279 · Decided June 22, 2022

SUMMARY

This document is a Nevada Supreme Court appellate case docket for Safari v. Modjtahed, involving a civil appeal from the Eighth Judicial District Court in Clark County. The appeal was dismissed pursuant to the parties' stipulation on June 22, 2022, with the parties bearing their own costs and attorney fees.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	Supreme Court of Nevada
JURISDICTION	Nevada
DECIDED	June 22, 2022
DOCKET	82279
DISPOSITION	dismissed
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	Civil appeal from the Eighth Judicial District Court of Clark County; the parties stipulated to dismissal of the appeal with prejudice.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	Published status is indicated in the supplied metadata, but the available document is a stipulated dismissal order rather than a merits opinion.
PARTIES	Mandana Zahedi, Nooshin Zahedi, Parviz Safari v. Hamid Modjtahed, Mohammad Mojtahed

TOPICS

- appellate procedure
- appellate jurisdiction
- civil procedure

PRACTICE AREAS

- appellate procedure
- civil procedure

KEY QUOTATIONS

“this appeal is dismissed.”

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The appellants filed a notice of appeal from proceedings in the Eighth Judicial District Court of Clark County. After briefing activity and a joint notice of settlement, the parties stipulated to dismiss the appeal with prejudice. The Supreme Court of Nevada dismissed the appeal and ordered the parties to bear their own costs and attorney fees.

DISPOSITION

dismissed