QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the court of appeals should order preparation of the trial-court record concerning appellant's claim of indigence after the trial court denied his request for a free reporter's record.

HOLDINGS

1. Pursuant to Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 145(g)(3), the trial court clerk and court reporter must prepare and file with the court of appeals the record of all trial-court proceedings concerning appellant's claim of indigence without charge.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Christopher Troy Bushlow claimed indigence and requested a reporter's record without charge for his appeal. The 231st District Court denied that request, prompting Bushlow to file a motion challenging the denial in the Fourteenth Court of Appeals.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The appeal arose from the 231st District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, trial court cause number 231-633972-18. After the trial court denied appellant's request for a free reporter's record, appellant filed a motion in the court of appeals challenging that denial. The court of appeals ordered preparation and filing of the record concerning appellant's claim of indigence and requested a response to the motion.
