

TWELFTH COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS

John Gee Washam v. State

Washam · No. 12-13-00193-CR · Decided March 12, 2015

SUMMARY

This document is a transmittal letter and execution record for the mandate issued by the Twelfth Court of Appeals in John Gee Washam v. The State of Texas. It identifies appellate case number 12-13-00193-CR, trial court case number 007-1332-12, and records that the mandate was executed by the Smith County District Clerk on March 12, 2015.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	Twelfth Court of Appeals of Texas
JURISDICTION	Texas
DECIDED	March 12, 2015
DOCKET	12-13-00193-CR
DISPOSITION	other
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	The Twelfth Court of Appeals issued a mandate in the criminal appeal and transmitted it to the Smith County District Clerk pursuant to Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 18.1.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	published
PARTIES	John Gee Washam v. The State of Texas

TOPICS

appellate procedure

criminal procedure

PRACTICE AREAS

criminal procedure

appellate procedure

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The document is a clerk's mandate-transmittal notice concerning appellate cause number 12-13-00193-CR and trial court cause number 007-1332-12. It states that the mandate was issued and delivered to the Smith County District Clerk, but the supplied text does not include the underlying opinion or state the appellate disposition.

DISPOSITION

other

Retrieved from lawtools.ai · <https://lawtools.ai/cases/state/texas-twelfth-court-of-appeals-of-texas/2015/john-gee-washam-v-state-3glaqa8w>