QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the court should grant the parties' joint motion for a sentence-four remand under 42 U.S.C. § 405(g).
2. What proceedings the Commissioner and the Administrative Law Judge must conduct on remand.

HOLDINGS

1. The court granted the parties' joint motion, reversed the Commissioner's decision, and remanded the action under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) for further administrative proceedings.
2. On remand, the Appeals Council must remand the matter to an Administrative Law Judge, who must further consider the medical source opinions and prior administrative findings under 20 C.F.R. § 404.1520c, offer Cabral an opportunity for a hearing, complete the administrative record, resolve the identified issues, and issue a new decision.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“this Court now, upon review, hereby enters a judgment under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) reversing the Commissioner’s decision with a remand of the cause to the Commissioner according to the following terms.”

“On remand, the ALJ should give further consideration to the medical source opinions and prior administrative findings pursuant to the provisions of 20 C.F.R. § 404.1520c.”

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The opinion concerns judicial review of an administrative Social Security decision. The parties agreed that further proceedings were necessary, including additional consideration of medical source opinions and prior administrative findings under 20 C.F.R. § 404.1520c.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Cabral sought judicial review of a decision by the Commissioner of Social Security. The parties jointly requested remand, and the district court entered judgment under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), reversing the Commissioner's decision and remanding for further proceedings.

DISPOSITION

reversed_and_remanded

REMAND INSTRUCTIONS

The Appeals Council must remand the matter to an Administrative Law Judge. The ALJ must further consider the medical source opinions and prior administrative findings under 20 C.F.R. § 404.1520c, offer Cabral an opportunity for a hearing, take further action to complete the administrative record and resolve the identified issues, and issue a new decision.

OPINION

Jose A. Cabral v. Frank Bisignano, Commissioner of Social Security

PER CURIAM.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

JOSE A. CABRAL,

Plaintiff, v. Case No. 3:26-cv-00075-jdp

FRANK BISIGNANO,

Commissioner of Social Security, Defendant.

ORDER ON THE PARTIES' JOINT MOTION FOR REMAND FOR FURTHER

PROCEEDINGS PURSUANT TO SENTENCE FOUR OF 42 U.S.C. § 405(g)

Pursuant to the power of this Court to enter a judgment affirming, modifying or reversing the Commissioner's decision with remand in Social Security actions under sentence four of section 205(g) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), and in light of the parties' joint motion to remand this action, this Court now, upon review, hereby enters a judgment under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) reversing the Commissioner's decision with a remand of the cause to the Commissioner according to the following terms. See Shalala v. Schaefer, 509 U.S. 292, 296 (1993); Melkonyan v. Sullivan, 501 U.S. 89, 97-98 (1991). Upon remand, the Appeals Council will remand the matter to an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ). On remand, the ALJ should give further consideration to the medical source opinions and prior administrative findings pursuant to the provisions of 20 C.F.R. § 404.1520c. The ALJ should offer the claimant the opportunity for a hearing, take further action to complete the administrative record resolving the above issues, and issue a new decision.
