QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the district court had jurisdiction over an appeal filed more than thirty days after rendition of the order appealed from.

HOLDINGS

1. A notice of appeal that is not filed within thirty days after rendition of the order appealed from does not invoke appellate jurisdiction, requiring dismissal of the appeal.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“The time for taking an appeal is a jurisdictional requirement established by Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.110(b). Where the notice of appeal is not filed within thirty days of rendition, the appellate court is precluded from exercising jurisdiction over the appeal.” (at 1)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Hopkins sought habeas corpus relief in the circuit court. After the circuit court denied his petition in an amended order rendered February 14, 2025, he filed a notice of appeal on March 28, 2025.
