

COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIRST DISTRICT OF TEXAS

Donald Hall and Connie B. Hall v. Jevon Cofield and Olivia Cofield

No. 01-18-00745-CV (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] Sept. 5, 2018) · No. No. 01-18-00745-CV · Decided September 5, 2018

SUMMARY

The Texas Court of Appeals for the First District issued a per curiam memorandum order referring the appeal to mediation. The order establishes deadlines for objecting to mediation, selecting a mediator, conducting mediation, and reporting whether the dispute settled, and addresses mediation confidentiality and mediator fees.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	Court of Appeals for the First District of Texas
WRITING FOR THE COURT	Laura Carter Higley
JURISDICTION	Texas
DECIDED	September 5, 2018
DOCKET	No. 01-18-00745-CV
DISPOSITION	other
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	Appeal from the 127th District Court of Harris County, Texas; the court of appeals issued an order referring the appeal to mediation.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	Limited; memorandum order concerning referral of an appeal to mediation
PARTIES	Donald Hall, Connie B. Hall v. Jevon Cofield, Olivia Cofield

TOPICS

mediation appellate procedure civil procedure costs

PRACTICE AREAS

civil procedure appellate procedure alternative dispute resolution

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the appeal should be referred to mediation under the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code.

HOLDINGS

1. The court determined that mediation was appropriate and ordered the appeal referred to mediation unless a party filed a timely objection with the clerk.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The opinion contains no substantive factual findings concerning the underlying dispute. The court addressed only the administration of the pending appeal and determined that mediation was appropriate.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The appeal was taken from the 127th District Court of Harris County in trial court cause number 2018-24840. The Court of Appeals for the First District of Texas determined that mediation was appropriate and ordered the appeal referred to mediation unless a party timely objected.

DISPOSITION

other