

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

Whiting v. United States

Whiting v. United States, 493 U.S. 1032 (1990) · Decided January 8, 1990

SUMMARY

The Supreme Court denied certiorari in this case from the Eleventh Circuit, leaving the lower court's decision undisturbed. The per curiam order does not address the merits of any underlying legal issues. This denial of review is the sole holding.
