QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the court should approve the parties' stipulated protective order for the specifically identified discovery materials.
2. Whether the stipulated order adequately limits confidentiality protections and preserves the parties' obligations under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) and applicable local rules.

HOLDINGS

1. The court granted the parties' stipulated protective order governing the specifically identified discovery materials.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“The parties’ stipulated protective order is GRANTED.” (Order at 1)

“this stipulated protective order does not entitle any party to file information designated herein as protected or confidential under seal” (Protective Order at 1)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The protective order covers specifically identified Placer County Sheriff's Office internal-affairs files concerning officer-involved shootings and incident reports involving mental-health crises. The order limits use of covered information to the litigation, restricts disclosure to specified persons, and establishes procedures for challenging confidentiality designations. It also clarifies that confidential designation does not automatically authorize filing documents under seal.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Plaintiffs Estate of Christopher Temple and Amber Smith sued the County of Placer, the Placer County Sheriff's Office, and individual defendants. During discovery, the parties negotiated a stipulated protective order under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) and the Eastern District of California's local rules. Magistrate Judge Carolyn K. Delaney entered the order on August 6, 2025.
