QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the appeal should be voluntarily dismissed at the appellant's request.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Appellants have now filed a motion for a voluntary dismissal of this appeal. The motion is granted and this appeal is dismissed.”

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The source contains no substantive factual background concerning the underlying insurance dispute. The appeal proceeded through settlement-program proceedings, jurisdictional motions, an order to show cause, and briefing-related motions before the appellant sought voluntary dismissal.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

5550 Painted Mirage Rd., LLC appealed from proceedings in the Clark County Eighth Judicial District Court, case number A803425. Travelers moved to dismiss the appeal for lack of jurisdiction and later for failure to file the opening brief; after an order to show cause and reinstatement of briefing, the appellant moved for voluntary dismissal. The Supreme Court of Nevada granted the voluntary-dismissal motion and dismissed the appeal, denying the pending extension and dismissal motions as moot.
