QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether Plaintiff should receive an attorney-fee award under the Equal Access to Justice Act.
- Whether the fee award should be paid to Plaintiff’s attorney subject to verification of, and possible offset for, qualifying federal debt.

HOLDINGS

1. Plaintiff was awarded $620.30 in attorney fees pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act.
2. The fee award may be paid to Plaintiff's attorney if verification establishes that Plaintiff has no debt qualifying for offset under the Treasury Offset Program; if such debt exists, remaining funds after offset are payable to Plaintiff.

KEY QUOTATIONS

"It is hereby ORDERED that attorney fees in the amount of $620.30 shall be awarded to Plaintiff pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412."

"Attorney fees will be paid to Plaintiff's attorney, dependent upon verification that Plaintiff has no debt which qualifies for offset against the awarded fees, pursuant to the Treasury Offset Program as discussed in Astrue v. Ratliff, 130 S.Ct. 2521 (2010)."

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The underlying action involved Plaintiff's claim for review of a Social Security administrative decision. The court awarded $620.30 in attorney fees under the Equal Access to Justice Act and specified how payment would be handled depending on whether Plaintiff had a qualifying debt subject to Treasury offset.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The District of Oregon entered an order awarding Plaintiff $620.30 in attorney fees under the Equal Access to Justice Act. The order directs that payment be made to Plaintiff's attorney subject to verification and possible offset for qualifying federal debt.
