

SUPREME COURT OF NEVADA

Bolden v. State

2021 NV 28 · No. 79715 · Decided September 23, 2021

SUMMARY

The Nevada Supreme Court affirmed Jason J. Bolden's judgment of conviction in an authored opinion issued July 8, 2021. On September 23, 2021, the court amended the opinion and denied Bolden's petition for rehearing. The docket also reflects a subsequent petition for en banc reconsideration, for which briefing was pending in the provided record.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	Supreme Court of Nevada
WRITING FOR THE COURT	Justice Pickering; Justice Cadish; Justice Herndon
JURISDICTION	Nevada
DECIDED	September 23, 2021
DOCKET	79715
DISPOSITION	affirmed
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	Direct criminal appeal from a judgment of conviction in the Eighth Judicial District Court of Clark County, Nevada.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	published
PARTIES	Jason J. Bolden v. The State of Nevada

TOPICS

- criminal procedure
- appellate procedure

PRACTICE AREAS

- criminal law
- criminal procedure
- appellate practice

HOLDINGS

- The Supreme Court of Nevada affirmed the judgment of conviction.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The supplied document contains docket information and disposition metadata but does not include the substantive opinion analysis or factual discussion. Accordingly, the material facts relied upon by the court cannot be reliably extracted.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Bolden appealed his judgment of conviction to the Supreme Court of Nevada. The court issued an authored opinion affirming the judgment of conviction on July 8, 2021. The court later amended the opinion and denied rehearing on September 23, 2021; the record also reflects a subsequent petition for en banc reconsideration.

DISPOSITION

affirmed