FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The document contains no substantive factual findings about the underlying insurance dispute. It reflects only that a mandamus proceeding arising from a Hidalgo County district-court case was pending before the Supreme Court of Texas and that the court granted temporary relief and issued a stay.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The matter arose from Texas Court of Appeals case number 13-07-00386-CV and Hidalgo County trial court case number C-2198-04-B. The Supreme Court of Texas granted temporary relief, issued a stay order, and requested merits briefing under Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 55; the mandamus petition had not yet been finally decided.

Ramirez 332nd District Court Hildago County Courthouse 100 N. Closner, 2nd Floor Edinburg, TX 78539 RE: Case Number: 07-0808 Court of Appeals Number: 13-07-00386-CV Trial Court Number: C-2198-04-B Style: IN RE CNA LLOYDS OF TEXAS, ET AL. Dear Counsel: Today the Supreme Court of Texas granted the Motion for Temporary Relief and issued the enclosed stay order in the above-referenced case.

Pursuant to Tex. R. App. P. 55.1, you are requested to file briefs on the merits in the above-styled case. Please refer to Tex. R. App. P. 55 for the requirements of relators' and real parties in interest briefs. Please note that any party may elect to rely upon the briefs already on file with this Court by notifying this office in writing no later than the due date of the brief.

If you elect to rely upon a brief filed with the court of appeals, you must provide twelve copies in accordance with Tex. R. App. P. 9.3(b). The filing of a notification letter shall invoke the same timetable as the filing of a brief.

The petition for writ of mandamus remains under consideration by the Court. The briefing schedule is outlined below. See Tex. R. App. P. 55.7. Please note that Tex. R. App. P. 9.2(b) does not apply. All briefs are due to be filed in this office on or before 3:00 p.m. on the due date: Relator/s shall file their brief within thirty days of this date (on or before December 14, 2007).

Real party/parties in interest shall file their response brief within twenty days after receiving relator/s brief (no later than January 3, 2008). Relator/s shall file any reply brief within fifteen days after receiving real party/parties in interest brief (no later than January 18, 2008). Additionally, the Court requests that parties submit a copy of all briefs on the merits (including amicus and post-submission briefs) and the respective petitions, responses, and replies - already on file - in electronic form within ten (10) days of the date of this letter.

Also, please submit an electronic copy when filing the hard copies of any brief. Please see the enclosed information for guidelines. Sincerely, [pic] Blake A. Laura Hinojosa | |Mr. Michael C. Crowley| SUPREME COURT OF TEXAS INFORMATION ON SUBMISSION OF ELECTRONIC BRIEFING In order to provide convenient access to briefs filed with the Supreme Court of Texas, the Court posts electronic copies of briefs on its website when it requests briefs on the merits.

The Court requests that the parties submit an electronic copy of all briefs on the merits (including amicus and post-submission briefs) as well as the respective petitions, responses, and replies that are already on file.

The Court asks the parties to comply with the following guidelines when submitting eBriefs: 1. The Court prefers the use of searchable PDF files because files in this format generally may not be altered. If this format is not available to you, please use either Microsoft Word (up to Word 2003/XP versions) or WordPerfect (versions 7 through X3). Documents submitted as Word/WordPerfect documents will be converted to searchable PDFs by the Clerk's office.

2. All eBriefs should be submitted either by email attachment or on a CD. NOTE: If you are emailing the eBrief and the file size is greater than 5 MB, you will need to separate the document into different files and email each file individually. Please identify each file clearly by labeling the individual parts (e.g. Appendix Part 1, Appendix Part 2, etc.). 3.

Each email subject line or CD must include information or a label which identifies the case style and the case number. In addition, a Certificate of Compliance must accompany the submission of all eBriefs. A copy of the Certificate of Compliance is included with this letter.

The Certificate of Compliance is also available in both Word and PDF format on the Supreme Court's Website at <http://www.supreme.courts.state.tx.us/ebriefs/ebriefs.asp>. 4. The email attachment or CD must contain only an electronic copy of the submitted filing.

The email attachment or CD must not contain any document or material that is not included in the original hard copy of the filing with the Court. 5. The email attachment or CD must be free of viruses or any other files that would be disruptive to the Court's computer system. 6. You may submit the eBrief(s) as an email attachment to the following email address: scebriefs@courts.state.tx.us Email attachments must not exceed 5 megabytes.

EBRIEF CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE At the request of the Supreme Court of Texas, I certify that this submitted computer CD or email attachment complies with the following requests of the Court: 1. 1. Information for eBrief(s) being submitted: 1. a. Case Style:

_____ 2. b. Case Number:
