QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the court may apply the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases to a federal prisoner's § 2241 petition.
2. Whether a § 2241 petitioner must pay the filing fee or submit the required application and supporting account certificate to proceed with the action.

HOLDINGS

1. Under Rule 1(b) of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases, the court may apply those rules to a § 2241 petition filed by a person in federal custody.
2. Before Mannino's § 2241 case may proceed, he must either pay the $5 filing fee or submit a completed IFP application, the required affidavit, and a certificate showing the balance of his institutional account.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Applying Rule 1(b), this Court requires the same before Mannino’s case may proceed.” (Order)

“If Mannino wishes to continue with this action, he must, on or before February 9, 2026, either: (1) file the completed Form AO 240, including the Certificate of Prisoner Accounts (which must be signed by an authorized officer at the incarcerating facility); or (2) pay the $5 filing fee in full.” (Order)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Guy C. Mannino is a federal prisoner incarcerated at the Federal Correctional Institution in Forrest City, Arkansas. He filed a pro se § 2241 habeas petition but had neither paid the required $5 filing fee nor requested leave to proceed in forma pauperis.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Mannino filed the § 2241 petition on January 7, 2026. The district court issued this order directing the Clerk to provide an IFP application and requiring Mannino either to pay the $5 filing fee or submit the completed IFP materials by February 9, 2026; no dismissal was entered in this order.
