KEY QUOTATIONS

"We adopt the amendments as proposed." (at 506)

"After considering the original joint report, the comments filed, the issues discussed at oral argument, and the information provided in the supplemental report, we adopt new Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516 as well as the conforming amendments to the rules of procedure, as set forth below." "Service by e-mail is deemed complete when the e-mail is sent." (at 508)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The Florida Bar's rules committees formed a Joint E-mail Service Committee in 2009 to develop a comprehensive approach to electronic service in Florida courts. The committees proposed a centralized rule requiring e-mail service for documents served in court proceedings, subject to exceptions for certain unrepresented parties, attorneys excused by the court, subpoenas, and formal notice. Comments raised concerns about the technological and financial burdens of immediate mandatory e-mail service in criminal, traffic, and juvenile divisions, prompting a supplemental report and phased implementation.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Florida Bar Rules of Judicial Administration Committee and other rules committees submitted a joint report proposing mandatory e-mail service and conforming rule amendments. The proposals were published for comment, and the Court later directed a workgroup to address the interaction between e-mail service and electronic filing. The Court adopted the new rule and conforming amendments, with phased implementation and delayed mandatory application in specified criminal, traffic, juvenile, mental-health, and sexually-violent-predator proceedings.

OPINION

PER CURIAM.

*506 REVISED OPINION PER CURIAM. Consistent with the orders entered in this case on August 14, 2012, August 30, 2012, and October 9, 2012, the opinion dated June 21, 2012, is withdrawn and this revised opinion is substituted in its place. This matter is before the Court for consideration of proposed amendments to the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration and conforming amendments to the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, the Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Florida Probate Rules, the Florida Rules of Traffic Court, the Florida Small Claims Rules, the Florida Rules of Juvenile Procedure, the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure, and the Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure and Forms.

We have jurisdiction. See art. V, § 2(a), Fla. Const. The chair of The Florida Bar Rules of Judicial Administration Committee (the RJA Committee), together with the committee chairs for each body of court rules identified above, filed an out-of-cycle report proposing new Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516 (Service of Pleadings and Documents), which would implement mandatory e-mail service for all cases in Florida.

The committees also propose amendments to conform existing court rules to new rule 2.516. We adopt the amendments as proposed. BACKGROUND In June 2009, each of The Florida Bar's rules committees was asked to designate one of its members to serve on the Joint E-mail Service Committee (the Joint Committee), tasked to explore the possibility of a comprehensive proposal to implement email service in Florida.

In preparing its proposals, the Joint Committee determined that a single rule addressing e-mail service should be placed in the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration. Accordingly, the RJA Committee developed new Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516 (Service of Pleadings and Documents). All of the rules committees have endorsed and approved this rule in concept.¹

The rules committees also have proposed various amendments to conform the other bodies of court rules to rule 2.516.

The Florida Bar Board of Governors approved the entire package of proposals by a vote of 36 to 3. After the joint report was submitted to the Court, the proposals were published for comment. The Court received several comments from members of the Bar, as well as from the Florida Public Defender Association, the Judicial Technology Committee of the Palm Beach County Bar Association, the Family Law Rules Committee, and the Family Law Section of The Florida Bar.

The RJA Committee, on behalf of all the rules committees, filed a response to these comments. While this case was pending before the Court, the rules committees filed a joint out-of-cycle report proposing various rule amendments to implement mandatory electronic filing procedures in Florida courts. See In re Amends, to Fla. Rules of Civ. Pro., Fla. Rules of Jud.

Admin., Fla. Rules of Crim. Pro., Fla. Probate Rules, Fla. Small Claims Rules, Fla. Rules of Juv. Pro., Fla. Rules of App. Pro., & Fla. Family Law Rules of Pro-Electronic Filing, No. SC11-399 (Fla. Petition filed Feb. 28, 2011) (In re Electronic Filing).

After the oral arguments in this case and in In re Electronic Filing, we determined that certain aspects of these cases warranted further examination. Accordingly, we directed the RJA Committee and the Florida Courts Technology Commission (FCTC) to convene a workgroup² and submit a supplemental report addressing several specific areas of concern. See In re Electronic Filing, No. SC11-399 (Fla. order entered Dec.

6, 2011). As is relevant here, we directed the workgroup to address how the implementation plan (for the new electronic filing procedures) proposed in In re Electronic Filing would impact the electronic service requirements proposed here.

The RJA Committee and the FCTC filed a supplemental report addressing this concern. There were no comments on the supplemental report. After considering the original joint report, the comments filed, the issues discussed at oral argument, and the information provided in the supplemental report, we adopt new Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516 as well as the conforming amendments to the rules of procedure, as set forth below.

AMENDMENTS The central rule adopted in this case is new Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516 (Service of Pleadings and Documents). This rule was modeled after current Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.080 (Service of Pleadings and Papers) and includes many of the same provisions and requirements for service.

However, new rule 2.516 provides that all documents required or permitted to be served on another party must be served by e-mail. Under subdivision (b)(1) (Service by Electronic Mail (“e-mail”)), upon appearing in a proceeding a lawyer must designate a primary e-mail address, and may designate up to two secondary e-mail addresses, for receiving service. Thereafter, service on the lawyer must be made by e-mail.

The rule does permit several limited exceptions to this requirement. A lawyer may file a motion to be excused from e-mail service, demonstrating that he or she has no e-mail account and lacks access to the Internet at the lawyer's office.³ Similarly, individuals who are not represented by an attorney may designate an e-mail address for service if they wish; however, pro se litigants are not required to use e-mail service.

Additionally, applications for witness subpoenas and documents served by formal notice or required to be served in the manner provided for service of formal notice are not required to comply with rule 2.516. Subdivision (b)(1) also includes provisions addressing the time and format for e-mail service. Service by e-mail is deemed complete when the e-mail is sent.⁴ Additionally, e-mail service is made by attaching a copy of the document to be served in PDF format to an e-mail, or by including in the e-mail a link to the document on a website maintained by the clerk.

The e-mail must contain the subject line "SERVICE OF COURT DOCUMENT" in all capital letters, followed by the case number of the relevant proceeding. The body of the e-mail must identify the court in which the proceeding is pending, the case number, the name of the initial party on each side, the title of each document *508served with that e-mail, and the sender's name and telephone number.

The e-mail and attachments together may not exceed 5 megabytes in size; e-mails that exceed the size requirement must be divided into separate e-mails (no one of which may exceed 5 megabytes) and labeled sequentially in the subject line.

As noted, the other subdivisions in rule 2.516 closely track the language in rule 1.080, modified to reflect the move to email service. Subdivision (c) (Service; Numerous Defendants) describes procedures for service when the parties are "unusually numerous"; subdivision (d) (Filing) requires that all original documents must be filed with the court either before service on the opposing party or immediately thereafter; and subdivision (e) (Filing Defined) states that documents are deemed "filed" when they are filed with the clerk of court.

Subdivisions (g) (Service by Clerk) and (h) (Service of Orders) address service of notices or other such documents by the clerk, and service of orders or judgments entered by the court, respectively. These subdivisions authorize, but do not require, the clerks and the courts to utilize e-mail service if they are equipped to do so.

In addition to new rule 2.516, we also amend the rules of procedure to delete existing provisions in the rules describing service, and add new language referencing rule 2.516. IMPLEMENTATION

As originally proposed in the joint report, rule 2.516 was intended to be both mandatory and uniform, such that e-mail service would be mandatory in all types of cases in Florida.

The rules committees also urged the Court to make e-mail service mandatory as soon as practicable. The Criminal Procedure Rules Committee (CPR Committee) and the Florida Public Defender Association (FPDA) have raised concerns about the move to mandatory e-mail service in criminal cases.

The CPR Committee and the FPDA asserted that, until the Court adopts an electronic filing rule, lawyers in the offices of the state attorneys, public defenders, and regional counsel will be required to serve paper documents to the court and electronic copies of the same documents on opposing counsel.

The commenters also maintained that the public defenders, state attorneys, and regional counsel have limited budgets which may not be able to support the costs required to immediately upgrade technology and train personnel in order to meet the new requirements.

In the supplemental report submitted to the Court, the workgroup (which included representatives from the both the CPR Committee and FPDA) further clarified this concern. The workgroup recommended that attorneys who practice in the criminal, traffic, and juvenile court systems should be permitted, but not required, to follow e-mail service procedures. It suggested that mandatory e-mail service for practitioners in the criminal, traffic, and juvenile divisions should be delayed until electronic filing is mandatory for this group.

See Joint Supplemental Report at 15 (Mar. 6, 2012) (on file with the Court in Case Nos. SC10-2101 and SC11-399). We accept the workgroup's recommendation to delay mandatory e-mail service in the criminal, traffic, and juvenile divisions of the trial court until electronic filing is also mandatory in these divisions.

Accordingly, the rule amendments that we adopt in this case are effective, nunc pro tunc, September 1, 2012, at 12:01 a.m.; however, they will be implemented as set forth in this opinion. First, e-mail service will be mandatory for attorneys practicing in the civil, probate, small claims, and family law divisions *509of the trial courts, as well as in all appellate cases, when the rule amendments take effect on September 1, 2012.

Second, when the rules take effect on September 1, attorneys practicing in the criminal, traffic, and juvenile divisions⁵ of the trial court may voluntarily choose to serve documents by e-mail under the new procedures, or they may continue to operate under the existing rules. E-mail service will be mandatory for attorneys practicing in these divisions on October 1, 2013, at 12:01 a.m. (the date on which electronic filing will be mandatory in these divisions).

See In re Electronic Filing, No. SC11-399, slip op. at 22 (Fla. June 21, 2012). Additionally, the new e-mail service requirements, as they apply in proceedings brought pursuant to the Florida Mental Health Act (Baker Act), Chapter 394, Part I, Florida Statutes, and the Involuntary Commitment of Sexually Violent Predators Act (Jimmy Ryce), Chapter 394, Part V, Florida Statutes, will also not be mandatory in these cases until October 1, 2013, at 12:01 a.m.⁶ Finally, we note that, pursuant to rule 2.516(b)(1), self-represented parties involved in any type of case in any Florida court, may, but are not required to, serve documents by e-mail.

Attorneys excused from e-mail service are also not obligated to comply with the new e-mail service requirements. CONCLUSION Accordingly, we adopt new Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516, and amend the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, the Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Florida Probate Rules, the Florida Rules of Traffic Court, the Florida Small Claims Rules, the Florida Rules of Juvenile Procedure, the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure, and the Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure as set forth in the appendix to this opinion.

New language is indicated by underscoring; deletions are indicated by struck-through type. The committee notes are offered for explanation only and are not adopted as an official part of the rules. We also amend the Family Law Forms as set forth in the appendix to this opinion, fully engrossed and ready for use on the effective date of the amendments.

The forms can be accessed and downloaded from this Court's website at www.flcourts.org/gen_public/family/forms_rules/index.shtml. By adopting the amended forms, we express no opinion as to their correctness or applicability.

As set forth above, the amendments to the rules and forms are effective, nunc pro tunc, September 1, 2012, at 12:01 a.m. It is so ordered. POLSTON, C.J., and PARIENTE, LEWIS, QUINCE, CANADY, LABARGA, and PERRY, JJ., concur. APPENDIX RULE 1.080. No service -need.be-made-on — parties against whom-a-default has been-entered except orders setting an action for trial as prescribed-in ■ rule 1.440(c-)-and final judgments that--shall be prepared and served as provided in subdivision (h)(2).

The court may require that orders or judgments be prepared by a party, may require the party to furnish' the court with stamped,--addressed envelopes for service of the-order- or judgment, and may require that proposed orders and judgments be furnished to--all parties before entry-by the court of the order or judgment.

(2) When a final judgment is entered against a party^{1/8} default) the court shall ■ mail a conformed copy of it to the party. The party in whose favor the judgment is entered shall furnish the court with a copy of the judgment) unless it is prepared by the court and the address of the party to be served[^] — If the address is unknown, the copy need not — be furnished. (3) This subdivision is directory and a failure to comply with it does not affect ■ the order or judgment or its finality or any[^] proceedings arising in the action.

Committee Notes 1971 Amendment, — Subdivision—(g) is added to cover the situation when a party responds by a letter to the clerk and the letter may constitute the party's answer. The clerk is then required to furnish copies to parties who have appeared in the action and who are not shown to have received copies, — It is not intended to apply to those litigious persons appearing in proper person who are familiar with the ■ requirements of the rules. — Subdivision, (h) is added and the first part regulates the sending of copies of orders.

When a party^{1/8} charged with preparation of an order, it requires service of the proposed Term on other parties and delivery of sufficient copies to the court to be conformed and furnished to all parties after entry. The second — part is intended to notify defendant whose address is known of the determination of the action^{1/8} by the court. Failure to comply with either part of subdivision (h) does not affect the order or judgment in any manner.

1972 Amendment, — Subdivision (h) is amended because confusion has resulted in its application. — Use of the term "party" has been misconstrued. —^{1/8} must be read in conjunction with subdivision (b) of the rule. — When service can be made on an attorney, it should be made on the attorney.

The term "party" is used throughout the rules because subdivision (b) makes the necessary substitution of the party's attorney throughout the rules. — No certificate of service is required. — The notation with the names of the persons served with a proposed form is not to be signed, — The committee intended for the court to know who had been served only. — Otherwise the committee would have used the form of certificate of service ■ in subdivision (f).

Submission of copies and mailing of them by the court has proved cumbersome in practice and so it is deleted. — The purpose of the rule was to ensure that all parties had an opportunity — to ■ see the proposed form before entry by the court. 1976 — Amendment.—The amendment made to this ■ rule on July 26, 1972, was intended according to the committee notes "[t]o assure that all parties had an opportunity to see the proposed form — before entry by the Court." — This change followed on the heels of the 1971 amendment, which the committee felt had been confusing.

Two changes have been made to subdivision (h)(1), which have resulted in a wholesale redrafting of the rule. — First, *512 the provision requiring — the ■ submission of proposed orders to all counsel prior — to entry by the court has been deleted).any inaccuracies in an- order-submitted to- the court being remediable — either by-the court’s own vigilance or later application by an interested party-; — gecondlyrthe-r-ale now requires that conformed copies of-any order entered by the-court must-be-mailed to all-parties of record in-all instances-(and to defaulted parties in-2- specified-instanc-es), for-purposes of-advising them of the date of 'the court’s-aetion as well as the substance of such action; — Nothing in-this new rule is meant to limit the power of-the court to delegate the ministerial function of preparing orders.

1992 Amendment. — Subdivisions (b)-and (f)are amended to-allow- service-pursuant to this-r-ule to be-made by facsimile. “Fac-simile”-or-“fax” is-a copy of a paper transmitted by electronic ■means to a printer receiving-the transmission at a designated telephone number. — When service is made by facsimile or fax-y-a-seeond copy-must-be served-by any other-method permitted-by this rule-to ensure-that-a legible -copy-is received* Court Commentary 1984-^Amendment, — The -committee is recommending — an—amendment—to—rede 1.530(b)-to cure ■ the-confusion created-by Casto v. Casto, 404 So.2d 1046 (Fla.

4th DCA 1980). — That recommendation ro-quires-an-amendment-to-rule 1.080(e)-spec-ilying that the date of-filing is that shown on the face of the paper■■ Every pleading subsequent to the initial pleading and every other document filed in the action must be served in conformity with the requirements of Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516. RULE 1.170.

A pleading may state as a crossclaim any claim by one party against a co-party arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of either the original action or a counterclaim therein, or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action.

The crossclaim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the crossclaimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the crossclaimant. Service of a crossclaim on a party who has appeared in the action shall be made pursuant to rule 1.080(b). Service of a crossclaim against a party who has not appeared in the action shall be made in the manner provided for service of summons. (h)-(j) [No Change] Committee Notes 1972-1988 Amendments.

PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND THINGS WITHOUT DEPOSITION (a) [No Change] (b) Procedure. A party desiring production under this rule shall serve notice as provided in rule 1.080 on every other party of the intent to serve a subpoena under this rule at least 10 days before the subpoena is issued if service is by delivery and 15 days before the subpoena is issued if the service is by mail or e-mail.

The proposed subpoena shall be attached to the notice and shall state the time, place, and method for production of the documents or *513things, and the name and address of the person who is to produce the documents or things, if known, and if not known, a general description sufficient to identify the person or the particular class or group to which the person belongs; shall include a designation of the items to be produced; and shall state that the person who will be asked to produce the documents or things has the right to object to the production under this rule and that the person will not be required to surrender the documents or things.

A copy of the notice and proposed subpoena shall not be furnished to the person upon whom the subpoena is to be served. If any party serves an objection to production under this rule within 10 days of service of the notice, the documents or things shall not be produced pending resolution of the objection in accordance with subdivision (d). (c)-(f) [No Change] Committee Notes 1980 Adoption.

[No Change] 1996-2010 Amendments. [No Change] 2012 Amendment. Subdivision (b) is amended to include e-mail service as provided in Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2,516. RULE 1.410. A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents, or tangible things designated therein, but the court, upon motion made promptly and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith, may (1) quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable and oppressive, or (2) condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents, or tangible things.

A party seeking production of evidence at trial which would be subject to a subpoena may compel such production by serving a notice to produce such evidence on an adverse party as provided in rule 1.080(b). Such notice shall have the same effect and be subject to the same limitations as a subpoena served on the party. (d)-(h) [No Change] Committee Notes 1972-1996 Amendments.

If the complaint shows a prima facie case for relief, the court shall issue: (1) a summons in certiorari; (2) an order nisi in prohibition; (3) an alternative writ in mandamus that may incorporate the complaint by reference only; (4) a writ of quo warranto; or (5) a writ of habeas corpus. *515 The writ shall be served in the manner prescribed by law, except the summons in certiorari shall be served as provided in rule 1.080(b). (e) [No Change] Committee Note 2012 Amendment.

Subdivision (d)(5) is amended to reflect the relocation of the service rule from rule 1.080 to Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.516. • Court Commentary [No Change] RULE 2.515. SIGNATURE OF ATTORNEYS AND PARTIES (a)Attorney Signature. Every pleading and other paperdocument of a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least 1 attorney of record in that attorney's individual name whose current record Florida Bar address, telephone number, including area code, primary email address and secondary e-mail addresses, if any, and Florida Bar number shall be stated, and who shall be duly licensed to practice law in Florida or who shall have received permission to appear in the particular case as provided in rule 2.510.

The attorney may be required by the court to give the address of, and to vouch for the attorney's authority to represent, the party. Except when otherwise specifically provided by an applicable rule or statute, pleadings need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit.

The signature of an attorney shall constitute a certificate by the attorney that the attorney has read the pleading or other paperdocument; that to the best of the attorney's knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this rule, it may be stricken and the action may proceed as though the pleading or other paper document had not been served. (b) [No Change] (c) Form of Signature.

(1) The signatures required on pleadings and papersdocuments by subdivisions (a) and (b) of this rule may be: (A) original signatures; (B) original signatures that have been reproduced by electronic means, such as on electronically transmitted documents or photocopied documents; or (C) electronic signatures using the 7s/," "s/," or 7s" formats by or at the direction of the person signing; or (Q)(D) any other signature format authorized by general law, so long as the clerk where the proceeding is pending has the capability of receiving and has obtained approval from the Supreme Court of Florida to accept pleadings and papersdocuments with that signature format.

(2) [No Change] RULE 2.516 SERVICE OF PLEADINGS AND DOCUMENTS (a) Service; When Required. Unless the court otherwise orders, or a statute or supreme court administrative order specifies a different means of service, every pleading subsequent to the initial pleading and every other document filed in any court proceeding, except applications for witness subpoenas and documents served by formal notice or required to be served in the manner provided for service of formal notice, must be served in accordance with this rule on each party.

No service need be made on parties against whom a default has been entered, except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims against them must be served in the manner provided for service of summons. *516(b) Service; How Made. When service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney, service must be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party is ordered by the court.

(1) Service by Electronic Mail (“email”). All documents required or permitted to be served on another party must be served by e-mail, unless this rule otherwise provides. When, in addition to service by e-mail, the sender also utilizes another means of service provided for in subdivision (b)(2), any differing time limits and other provisions applicable to that other means of service control.

(A) Service on Attorneys. Upon appearing in a proceeding, an attorney must serve a designation of a primary e-mail address and may designate no more than two secondary email addresses. Thereafter, service must be directed to all designated email addresses in that proceeding. Every document filed by an attorney thereafter must include the primary email address of that attorney and any secondary e-mail addresses.

If an attorney does not designate any e-mail address for service, documents may be served on that attorney at the email address on record with The Florida Bar. (B) Exception to E-mail Service on Attorneys. Service by an attorney on another attorney must be made by e-mail unless excused by the court. Upon motion by an attorney demonstrating that the attorney has no email account and lacks access to the Internet at the attorney’s office, the court may excuse the attorney from the requirements of e-mail service.

Service on and by an attorney excused by the court from e-mail service must be by the means provided in subdivision (b)(2) of this rule. (C) Service on and by Parties Not Represented by an Attorney. Any party not represented by an attorney may serve a designation of a primary e-mail address and also may designate no more than two secondary e-mail addresses to which service must be directed in that proceeding by the means provided in subdivision (b)(1) of this rule.

If a party not represented by an attorney does not designate an e-mail address for service in a proceeding, service on and by that party must be by the means provided in subdivision (b)(2) of this rule. (D) Time of Service. Service by e-mail is complete when it is sent. (i) An e-mail is deemed served on the date it is sent. (ii) If the sender learns that the email did not reach the address of the person to be served, the sender must immediately send another copy by e-mail, or by a means authorized by subdivision (b)(2) of this rule. (iii) E-mail service is treated as service by mail for the computation of time.

(E) Format of E-mail for Service. Service of a document by e-mail is made by an e-mail sent to all addresses designated by the attorney or party with either (a) a copy of the document in PDF format attached or (b) a link to the document on a website maintained by a clerk. (i) All documents served by e-mail must be sent by an e-mail message containing a subject line beginning with the words “SERVICE OF COURT DOCUMENT” in all capital letters, followed by the case number of the proceeding in which the documents are being served. (ii) The body of the e-mail must identify the court in which the proceeding is pending, the case number, the name of the initial party on each side, the title of each document served with that e-mail, and the sender's name and telephone number. (iii) Any document served by e-mail may be signed by any of the "/s/," "7s," or "s/" formats, as long as the filed original is signed in accordance with the applicable rule of procedure. (iv) Any e-mail which, together with its attached documents, exceeds five megabytes (5MB) in size, must be divided and sent as separate emails, no one of which may exceed 5MB in size and each of which must be sequentially numbered in the subject line.

(2) Service by Other Means. In addition to, and not in lieu of, service by email, service may also be made upon attorneys by any of the means specified in this subdivision (b)(2). Service on and by all parties who are not represented by an attorney and who do not designate an e-mail address, and on and by all attorneys excused from e-mail service, must be made by delivering a copy of the document or by mailing it to the party or attorney at their last known address or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the clerk of the court.

Service by mail is complete upon mailing. Delivery of a copy within this rule is complete upon: (A) handing it to the attorney or to the party, (B) leaving it at the attorney's or party's office with a clerk or other person in charge thereof, (C) if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein, (D) if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at the person's usual place of abode with some person of his or her family above 15 years of age and informing such person of the contents, or (E) transmitting it by facsimile to the attorney's or party's office with a cover sheet containing the sender's name, firm, address, telephone number, and facsimile number, and the number of pages transmitted.

When service is made by facsimile, a copy must also be served by any other method permitted by this rule. Facsimile service occurs when transmission is complete. (F) Service by delivery shall be deemed complete on the date of the delivery. (c) Service; Numerous Defendants.

In actions when the parties are unusually numerous, the court may regulate the service contemplated by these rules on motion or on its own initiative in such manner as may be found to be just and reasonable. (d) Filing. All original documents must be filed with the court either before service or immediately thereafter, unless otherwise provided for by general law or other rules.

If the original of any bond or other document is not placed in the court file, a certified copy must be so placed by the clerk. (e) Filing Defined. The filing of documents with the court as required by these rules must be made by filing them with the clerk, except that the judge may permit *518documents to be filed with the judge, in which event the judge must note the filing date before him or her on the documents and transmit them to the clerk.

The date of filing is that shown on the face of the document by the judge's notation or the clerk's time stamp, whichever is earlier. (f) Certificate of Service. When any attorney certifies in substance: "I certify that a copy hereof has been furnished to (here insert name or names and addresses used for service) by (e-mail) (delivery) (mail) (fax) on.(date) Attorney" the certificate is taken as prima facie proof of such service in compliance with this rule. (g) Service by Clerk.

When the clerk is required to serve notices and other documents, the clerk may do so by e-mail as provided in subdivision (b)(1) or by any other method permitted under subdivision (b)(2). Service by a clerk is not required to be by e-mail. (h) Service of Orders.

(1) A copy of all orders or judgments must be transmitted by the court or under its direction to all parties at the time of entry of the order or judgment. No service need be made on parties against whom a default has been entered except orders setting an action for trial and final judgments that must be prepared and served as provided in subdivision (h)(2).

The court may require that orders or judgments be prepared by a party, may require the party to furnish the court with stamped, addressed envelopes for service of the order or judgment, and may require that proposed orders and judgments be furnished to all parties before entry by the court of the order or judgment.

The court may serve any order or judgment by e-mail to all attorneys who have not been excused from e-mail service and to all parties not represented by an attorney who have designated an e-mail address for service.

(2) When a final judgment is entered against a party in default, the court must mail a conformed copy of it to the party. The party in whose favor the judgment is entered must furnish the court with a copy of the judgment, unless it is prepared by the court, with the address of the party to be served. If the address is unknown, the copy need not be furnished.

(3) This subdivision is directory and a failure to comply with it does not affect the order or judgment, its finality, or any proceedings arising in the action. RULE 3.030. This form should be used to obtain personal service on the other party when you begin your lawsuit. Service is required for all documents filed in your case. Service means giving a copy of the required papers to the other party using the procedure that the law requires. Generally, there are two ways to make service: (1) personal service, or (2) service by e-mail, mail, or hand delivery.

A third method for service is called constructive service; *604however, the relief a court may grant may be limited in a case where constructive service has been used. The law requires that certain documents be served by personal service if personal service is possible. Personal service means that a summons (this form) and a copy of the forms you are filing with the court that must be personally served are delivered by a deputy sheriff or private process server • directly to the other party, or • to someone over the age of fifteen with whom the other party lives.

Personal service is required for all petitions, including petitions for modification. You cannot serve these papers on the other party yourself or by mail or hand delivery. Personal service must be made by the sheriff's department in the county where the other party lives or works or by a private process server certified in the county where the other party lives or works.

In many counties, there are private process servers who, for a fee, will personally serve the summons and other documents that require personal service. You should look under process servers in the yellow pages of the telephone book for a list of private process servers in your area. You may use a private process server to serve any paper required to be personally served in a family law case except a petition for injunction for protection against domestic or repeat violence.

How do I start? When you begin your lawsuit, you need to complete this form (summons) and a Process Service Memorandum, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.910(b). The forms should be typed or printed legibly in black ink. Next, you will need to take these forms and, if you have not already done so, file your petition with the clerk of the circuit court in the county where you live.

You should keep a copy of the forms for your records. The clerk will sign the summons, and then the summons, a copy of the papers to be served, and the process service memorandum must be delivered to the appropriate sheriff's office or to a private process server for service on the other party. IF THE OTHER PARTY LIVES IN THE COUNTY WHERE SUIT IS FILED: Ask the clerk in your county about any local procedures regarding service.

Generally, if the other party lives in the county in which you are filing suit and you want the sheriff's department to serve the papers, you will file the summons along with a Process Service Memorandum, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.910(b), with the clerk and the clerk will forward those papers to the sheriff for service. Make sure that you attach a copy of the papers you want personally served to the summons.

You may also need to provide the sheriff with a stamped envelope addressed to you. This will allow the sheriff to send the proof of service to you, after the sheriff serves your papers on the other party. However, in some counties the sheriff may send the proof of service directly to the clerk. If you are instructed to supply a self-addressed, stamped envelope and you receive the proof of service, you should file the proof of service with the clerk after you receive it from the sheriff.

Also, you will need to find out how much the sheriff charges to serve the papers. Personal checks are not accepted. You should attach to the summons a cashier's check or money order made payable to the sheriff, and either give it to the clerk for delivery to the sheriff or send all of the paperwork and the fee to the sheriff yourself.

The clerk will tell you which procedure to use. *605The costs for service may be waived if you are indigent. If you want a private process server to serve the other party, you should still bring the summons to the clerk's office and have the clerk sign it for you. You should deliver the summons, along with the copy of your initial petition and any other papers to be served, and a Process Service Memorandum, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.910(b), to the private process server.

The private process server will charge you a fee for serving the papers. After service is complete, proof of service by the private process server must be filed with the clerk. You should discuss how this will occur with the private process server. IF THE OTHER PARTY LIVES IN ANOTHER COUNTY: If the other party lives in another county, service needs to be made by a sheriff in the county where the other party lives or by a private process server certified in the county where the other party lives.

Make sure that you attach a copy of the papers you want personally served to the summons as well as the Process Service Memorandum, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.910(b). If you want the sheriff to serve the papers, the clerk may send your papers to that sheriff's office for you, or you may have to send the papers yourself.

The clerk will tell you which procedure to use. Either way, you will need to provide the sheriff with a stamped envelope addressed to you. This will allow the sheriff to send the proof of service to you, after the sheriff serves your papers on the other party. You should file the proof of service with the clerk after you receive it from the sheriff. Also, you will need to find out how much the sheriff charges to serve the papers.

Personal checks are not accepted. You should attach to the summons a cashier's check or money order made payable to the sheriff, and either give it to the clerk for delivery to the sheriff or send all of the paperwork and the fee to the sheriff yourself.

The clerk will tell you which procedure to use. The costs for service may be waived if you are indigent. If you want a private process server to serve the other party, you should still bring the summons to the clerk's office where the clerk will sign it for you. You should deliver the summons, along with the copy of your initial petition and any other papers to be served, and a Process Service Memorandum, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.910(b), to the private process server.

The private process server will charge you a fee for serving the papers. After service is complete, proof of service by the private process server must be filed with the clerk. You should discuss how this will occur with the private process server. IF THE OTHER PARTY CANNOT BE LOCATED OR DOES NOT LIVE IN FLORIDA: If, after you have made a diligent effort to locate the other party, you absolutely cannot locate the other party, you may serve the other party by publication.

Service by publication is also known as constructive service. You may also be able to use constructive service if the other party does not live in Florida. However, Florida courts have only limited jurisdiction over a party who is served by constructive service and may have only limited jurisdiction over a party living outside of Florida regardless of whether that party is served by constructive or personal service; that is, the judge's power to order the other party to do certain things may be limited.

For example, the judge may be able to grant your request for a divorce, but the judge may not be able to address issues such as child support, spousal support (alimony), or division of property or debts. *606Regardless of the type of service used, if the other party once lived in Florida but is living outside of Florida now, you should include in your petition a statement regarding the length of time the party lived in Florida, if any, and when.

For example: Respondent last lived in Florida from {date } _ to {date }_ This area of the law is very complex and you may need to consult with an attorney regarding the proper type of service to be used in your case if the other party does not live in Florida or cannot be located. What happens when the papers are served on the other party?

The date and hour of service are written on the original summons and on all copies of it by the person making the service. The person who delivers the summons and copies of the petition must file a proof of service with the clerk or provide a proof of service to you for filing with the court. It is your responsibility to make sure the proof of service has been returned to the clerk and placed in your case file.

Where can I look for more information? Before proceeding, you should read General Information for Self-Represented Litigants found at the beginning of these forms. For further information regarding service of process, see chapters 48 and 49, Florida Statutes, and rule 1.070, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, as well as the instructions for Notice of Action for Dissolution of Marriage (No Child or Financial Support), Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.913(a)(1), Notice of Action for Family Cases with Minor Child(ren), Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.913(a)(2), Affidavit of Diligent Service and Inquiry, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.913(b), and Affidavit of Diligent Search, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.913(c).

Special notes... If you have been unable to obtain proper service on the other party within 120 days after filing your lawsuit, the court will dismiss your lawsuit against the other party unless you can show the court a good reason why service was not made within 120 days.

For this reason, if you had the local sheriff serve the papers, you should check with the clerk every couple of weeks after completing the service papers to see if service has been completed. You may need to supply the sheriff with a new or better address. If you had a private process server or a sheriff in another county serve the papers, you should be in contact with that person or sheriff until you receive proof of service from that person or sheriff.

You should then file the proof of service with the clerk immediately. If the other party fails to respond, i.e., fails to file a written response with the court, within 20 days after the service of the summons, you are entitled to request a default. See the instructions to Motion for Default, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.922(a), and Default, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.922(b), for further information.

You will need to file an Affidavit of Military Service, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.912(b), before a default may be granted. If a non-lawyer helps you fill out these forms, that person must give you a copy of Disclosure from Nonlawyer, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.900(a), before he or she helps you.

It is very important that the court and the other party in your case have your correct address. A party not represented by an attorney may choose to designate e-mail address(es) for service. A primary and up to two secondary e-mail addresses can be designated.

If you do so and the other party is represented by an attorney or has also designated e-mail address(es) for service, e-mail will be the exclusive means of service. If there is any change in your mailing or e-mail address(es), you must complete a new form, file it with the clerk, and serve a copy on any other party or parties in your case. A general magistrate is an attorney appointed by a judge to take testimony and recommend decisions on certain matters connected with a divorce. These recommendations are then reviewed by the judge and are generally approved unless contrary to the law or the facts of the case.

The primary purposes of having general magistrates hear family law matters are to reduce the costs of litigation and to speed up cases. Either party may request that their case, or portions of their case, be heard by a general magistrate _ by filing Motion for Referral to General Magistrate, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.920(a). You must also prepare an Order of Referral to General Magistrate, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.920(b), to submit to the judge assigned to your case.

Many times, the court, either on its own motion or under current administrative orders of the court, may refer your case to a general magistrate. Even in those instances, you may be required to prepare and submit an Order of Referral to General Magistrate, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.920(b), to the judge. Once a general magistrate has been appointed to your case, the general magistrate will assign a time and place for a hearing as soon as reasonably possible after the referral is made.

The general magistrate will give notice of that hearing to each of the parties directly or will direct a party or attorney in the case to file and serve a notice of hearing on the other party. If you are asked to send the notice of hearing, you will need to use the form entitled Notice of Hearing Before General Magistrate, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.920(c).

Regardless of who prepares the notice of hearing, the moving party (the one who requested referral to the general magistrate) is required to have the notice properly served on the other party. These forms should be typed or printed in black ink.

After completing this form, you should file the original with the clerk of the circuit court in the county where your case is filed and keep a copy for your records. What should I do next? If you are filing a Motion for Referral to General Magistrate, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.920(a), you need to send or deliver your motion directly to the judge assigned to your case, along with an Order of Referral to General Magistrate, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.920(b), and an addressed, stamped envelope for each party in the case.

The judge will then either grant or deny the motion, usually without a hearing. If you are required to submit an Order of Referral to General Magistrate, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.920(b), to the judge assigned to your case, you will need to send or deliver the order directly to the judge, along with addressed, stamped envelopes for each party in the case.

The party who prepares any of these forms must file the original with the clerk of the circuit court. A copy of the motion must be served on any other party in your case. Service must be in accordance with *614Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516. Where can I look for more information?

Before proceeding, you should read General Information for Self-Represented Litigants found at the beginning of these forms. The words that are in bold underline in these instructions are defined there. For further information, see Florida Family Law Rule of Procedure 12.490. Special notes... IMPORTANT: After the judge refers your case to a general magistrate, either party (including the party who was required to prepare and submit the Order of Referral) may object to the referral within 10 days of the date that the referral is made (if the Order of Referral is served by mail, the parties have an additional 5 days within which to object to the referral).

Every litigant is entitled to have his or her case heard by a judge. However, before you decide to object to an Order of Referral to General Magistrate, you should consider the potential extra costs and time delays that may result from having a judge hear your case instead of a general magistrate. You may want to speak with an attorney in your area who can assist you in making a more informed decision regarding whether you should file an objection to an Order of Referral to General Magistrate.

Although the Criminal Procedure Rules Committee endorsed new rule 2.516, it also expressed concerns in the original joint report related to making e-mail service mandatory in criminal cases. These concerns are discussed later in this opinion..

The Court's order indicated that the work-group should include, but not be limited to, *507representatives from the Criminal Procedure Rules Committee, the Florida Prosecuting

Attorneys Association, the Florida Public Defender Association, and the Florida Association of Court Clerks and Comptrollers.. Service on or by attorneys excused from email service and service on or by pro se litigants who do not designate an e-mail address must be made in accordance with rule 2.516(b)(2).

This subdivision of the rule provides for service by delivering a copy of the document or by mailing it to the party or attorney at their last known address or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the clerk of the court.. Subdivision (b)(1)(D)(iii) provides that email service is treated as service by mail for the computation of time.. This includes juvenile delinquency proceedings, dependency and termination of parental rights proceedings, and proceedings for families and children in need of services..

The RJA Committee should review whether any changes to the rules of procedure are necessary to accommodate e-mail service in Baker Act proceedings. Similarly, the Criminal Court Steering Committee, together with the RJA Committee, should review whether any changes to the rules are necessary to accommodate e-mail service in Jimmy Ryce proceedings. If these committees determine that rule amendments are necessary, they may file proposed rule amendments with the Court.
