QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether a joint stipulation of dismissal with prejudice under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii) automatically terminates the action as to the stipulated defendant without a court order.

HOLDINGS

1. A stipulation of dismissal with prejudice signed by the parties who appeared automatically terminates the action as to the defendant covered by the stipulation and does not require a court order.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“The plaintiff may dismiss some or all of the defendants, or some or all of his claims, through a Rule 41(a)(1) notice, and the dismissal “automatically terminates the action as to the defendants who are the subjects of the notice.”” (at 1)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The parties filed a stipulation of dismissal under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii) as to Trans Union LLC. The stipulation stated that Trans Union LLC was voluntarily dismissed with prejudice. Plaintiff's claims against other defendants, including Discover Bank, remained pending.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On January 13, 2026, the parties filed a joint stipulation dismissing Trans Union LLC with prejudice. The court determined that the stipulation automatically terminated the action as to Trans Union LLC, directed the Clerk to terminate that defendant, and ordered that the case remain open as to the remaining defendants.
