QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether the Intermediate Court of Appeals should approve the parties’ joint stipulation to dismiss the docketed appeal under Hawai‘i Rules of Appellate Procedure Rule 42(b).

HOLDINGS

1. The court approved the parties' signed stipulation under Hawai'i Rules of Appellate Procedure Rule 42(b) and dismissed the appeal, with each party bearing its own attorneys' fees and costs.

KEY QUOTATIONS

"Therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Stipulation is approved and the appeal is dismissed. The parties shall bear their own attorneys' fees and costs." (at 2)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The opinion contains no substantive factual background concerning the underlying family-law dispute. The material procedural facts are that the appeal had been docketed and that counsel for all appearing parties signed a joint stipulation requesting dismissal, with each party bearing its own attorneys' fees and costs.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The appeal arose from the Family Court of the Fifth Circuit in case number 5DV211000054. After docketing, the parties submitted a signed joint stipulation to dismiss the appeal and to bear their own attorneys' fees and costs. The Intermediate Court of Appeals approved the stipulation and dismissed the appeal.

DISPOSITION
