QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether the district court should adopt the magistrate judge’s report and recommendation recommending dismissal without prejudice for want of prosecution under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).

HOLDINGS

1. The district court adopted the magistrate judge's findings of fact and conclusions of law and dismissed the action without prejudice for want of prosecution pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Accordingly, the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the magistrate judge are correct, and the Report and Recommendation of United States Magistrate Judge (#9) is ADOPTED.”

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Joshua Martin is a prisoner confined at the United States Penitentiary in Beaumont, Texas. He filed a pro se civil-rights action under Bivens against unknown defendants. The magistrate judge recommended dismissal without prejudice for want of prosecution, and the parties filed no objections.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Joshua Martin, a federal prisoner proceeding pro se, filed a Bivens civil-rights action against unknown defendants. The matter was referred to Magistrate Judge Zack Hawthorn, who recommended dismissal without prejudice for want of prosecution on January 1, 2026. No objections were filed, and the district court adopted the report and recommendation and directed entry of final judgment.

DISPOSITION

dismissed
