

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Jeremy Sandy Williams v. Unknown Parties

Williams · No. 1:25-cv-00799 GSA (PC) · Decided July 3, 2025

SUMMARY

The United States District Court for the Eastern District of California orders the plaintiff, a federal prisoner proceeding pro se under Bivens, to submit an application to proceed in forma pauperis or pay the filing fee within thirty days. The plaintiff must also submit a certified six-month prison trust account statement, and the order warns that noncompliance may result in dismissal.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether plaintiff should be required to pay the filing fee or submit an application to proceed in forma pauperis and a certified prison trust-account statement.

HOLDINGS

1. Because plaintiff had neither paid the filing fee nor submitted an in forma pauperis application, the court ordered him, within thirty days of service, to submit a completed and signed application or pay the $405 filing fee.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Plaintiff is cautioned that failure to comply with this order within the time allotted may result in dismissal of this action.” (at 1)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Jeremy Sandy Williams is a federal prisoner proceeding without counsel in a civil-rights action against unknown parties under Bivens v. Six Unknown Agents. He had not paid the $405 filing fee and had not submitted an application to proceed in forma pauperis. The court therefore required him to submit the application, or alternatively pay the filing fee, and to provide a certified six-month prison trust-account statement.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Plaintiff filed a federal civil-rights action but neither paid the $405 filing fee nor submitted an application to proceed in forma pauperis. The magistrate judge issued an order directing plaintiff to cure the filing-fee deficiency within thirty days and warning that noncompliance could result in dismissal.
