QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether the settled action should be dismissed without prejudice while allowing the parties to reopen it if the settlement was not consummated.

HOLDINGS

1. The court dismissed the settled action without costs and without prejudice, retaining jurisdiction and allowing reopening for good cause within 45 days if the settlement was not consummated.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Counsel advised the district court that the action had been settled. The court therefore dismissed the action without costs and without prejudice, subject to reopening for good cause within 45 days if the settlement was not consummated.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The parties reached a settlement during the pendency of the federal action. Upon being advised by counsel that the action had settled, the district court dismissed the case without prejudice, while retaining jurisdiction to permit reopening if the settlement was not consummated.

DISPOSITION

dismissed
