QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether Plaintiff should receive an award of attorney fees under the Equal Access to Justice Act.
- Whether the awarded fees should be paid to Plaintiff's attorney subject to verification and possible offset under the Treasury Offset Program.

HOLDINGS

1. Plaintiff is entitled to an award of $5,186.43 in attorney fees pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act.
2. The fee award will be paid to Plaintiff's attorney only after verification that Plaintiff has no debt qualifying for offset; if Plaintiff has such a debt, any remaining funds after offset will be payable to Plaintiff.

KEY QUOTATIONS

"It is hereby ORDERED that attorney fees in the amount of $5,186.43 shall be awarded to Plaintiff pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412."

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiff was awarded attorney fees in the amount of $5,186.43 pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act. The court directed that payment to Plaintiff's attorney was contingent on verification that Plaintiff had no debt qualifying for offset under the Treasury Offset Program. If a qualifying debt existed, any remaining funds after offset were to be made payable to Plaintiff.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The opinion is an order resolving an application or request for attorney fees after Plaintiff's Social Security litigation. The court awarded $5,186.43 under the Equal Access to Justice Act and specified how the fees would be paid depending on whether Plaintiff had a qualifying debt subject to offset.
