

OTHER

In re Estate of (Decedent)

SUMMARY

This document is a consanguinity chart used in probate to determine heirship and intestate succession for a decedent's estate. It visually maps familial relationships across six generations, from great-great-grandparents to grandchildren, identifying degrees of kinship such as first cousins and nieces/nephews. The chart serves as a reference tool for establishing the legal heirs under applicable probate law.

CASE DETAILS

JURISDICTION	Other
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	exhibit

TOPICS

probate probate procedure family law procedure

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The document is a generational family tree chart labeled 'Decedent-Chart' showing relationship degrees from a decedent through seven generations, including great-great-grandparents, grandparents, parents, siblings, children, grandchildren, and various cousin relationships. It includes a reference to PROBATECTARS.COM.