

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

United States v. Sayasane

No. 20-10565, United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit (March 12, 2021)

SUMMARY

In this unpublished Fifth Circuit opinion, the court granted counsel's motion to withdraw under Anders v. California and dismissed the direct appeal, finding no nonfrivolous issues. The court declined to consider the defendant's ineffective-assistance-of-counsel claim on direct appeal because the record did not permit fair evaluation, noting such claims are generally reserved for collateral review. The court also denied the defendant's pro se motion for appointment of new counsel as untimely.

OPINION

PER CURIAM.

Case: 20-10565 Document: 00515778060 Page: 1 Date Filed: 03/12/2021 United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit United States Court of Appeals Fifth Circuit FILED March 12, 2021 No. 20-10565 Lyle W. Cayce Conference Calendar Clerk United States of America, Plaintiff—Appellee, versus Phouphet Sayasane, Defendant—Appellant. Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas USDC No. 2:18-CR-95-1 Before Jones, Clement, and Haynes, Circuit Judges.

Per Curiam:* The Federal Public Defender appointed to represent Phouphet Sayasane has moved for leave to withdraw and has filed a brief in accordance with Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967), and United States v. Flores, 632 F.3d 229 (5th Cir. 2011). Sayasane has filed a response.

We have reviewed counsel's * Pursuant to 5th Circuit Rule 47.5, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published and is not precedent except under the limited circumstances set forth in 5th Circuit Rule 47.5.4. Case: 20-10565 Document: 00515778060 Page: 2 Date Filed: 03/12/2021 No. 20-10565 brief and the relevant portions of the record reflected therein, as well as Sayasane's response.

Sayasane alleges, among other things, that his counsel was ineffective. We have previously determined that such claims “should not be litigated on direct appeal, unless they were previously presented to the trial court. It is only in rare cases in which the record allows a reviewing court to fairly evaluate the merits of the claim that we will consider such a claim.” United States v. Isgar, 739 F.3d 829, 841 (5th Cir.

2014) (internal quotation marks and footnotes omitted). We conclude that this is not such a “rare” case, so we offer no opinion on whether such a claim would be successful on collateral review. We concur with counsel’s remaining assessment that the appeal presents no nonfrivolous issue for direct appellate review.

Accordingly, counsel’s motion for leave to withdraw is GRANTED, counsel is excused from further responsibilities herein, and the appeal is DISMISSED. See 5th Cir. R. 42.2. Sayasane’s pro se motion for appointment of new counsel is DENIED as untimely. See United States v. Wagner, 158 F.3d 901, 902-03 (5th Cir. 1998). 2
