

SEVENTH COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS

In re R. Wayne Johnson, Relator

07-15-00195-CR · No. 07-15-00195-CR · Decided May 8, 2015

SUMMARY

This document is a per curiam matter from the Seventh Court of Appeals of Texas involving R. Wayne Johnson as relator. The available text identifies appellate cause number 07-15-00195-CR but does not reveal the substantive relief sought or disposition.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	Seventh Court of Appeals of Texas
JURISDICTION	Texas
DECIDED	May 8, 2015
DOCKET	07-15-00195-CR
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	Original proceeding in the Seventh Court of Appeals of Texas; the specific relief sought and disposition cannot be reliably determined from the provided text.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	Published status is indicated in the supplied metadata, but the opinion's legal reasoning and disposition cannot be reliably extracted from the provided OCR.
PARTIES	R. Wayne Johnson, Relator

TOPICS

appellate procedure

criminal procedure

PRACTICE AREAS

appellate procedure

criminal procedure

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The provided text does not contain reliably readable factual findings or material case facts.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The source identifies an original proceeding associated with appellate docket number 07-15-00195-CR. The OCR text is substantially illegible and does not reliably state the underlying proceedings, requested relief, or outcome.

Retrieved from lawtools.ai · <https://lawtools.ai/cases/state/texas-seventh-court-of-appeals-of-texas/2015/in-re-r-wayne-johnson-relator-bcla136k>