

COUNTY COURT AT LAW, STARR COUNTY, TEXAS

Pedro Marquez, Jr. v. Lisa A. Watkins

No. CC-14-089, County Court at Law, Starr County, Texas (August 13, 2015)

SUMMARY

This document contains materials from a Texas family-law case involving the marriage of Pedro Marquez, Jr. and Lisa A. Watkins and the interests of their minor children. It includes a judge’s order of recusal, an order assigning Senior Justice David Wellington Chew to the case, and Pedro Marquez, Jr.’s third request and notice for past-due findings of fact and conclusions of law after denial of a bill of review.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	County Court at Law, Starr County, Texas
JURISDICTION	Texas
DECIDED	August 13, 2015
DOCKET	CC-14-089
DISPOSITION	other
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	The document is a third request and notice of past-due findings of fact and conclusions of law following the trial court's denial of Pedro Marquez, Jr.'s bill of review.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	nonprecedential
PARTIES	Pedro Marquez, Jr. v. Lisa A. Watkins

TOPICS

- family law procedure
- divorce
- pleadings
- civil procedure

PRACTICE AREAS

- family law
- civil procedure

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Pedro Marquez, Jr. and Lisa A. Watkins were parties to a marriage proceeding involving their minor children, Pedro Marquez III, Joaquin M. Marquez, and Mason R. Marquez. The trial court denied Marquez’s bill of review on October 9, 2014. After the court did not timely file requested findings of fact and conclusions of law, Marquez submitted a third request and notice of past-due findings.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The trial court denied Pedro Marquez, Jr.'s bill of review on October 9, 2014. Marquez timely requested findings of fact and conclusions of law on October 17, 2014, followed by a second request that extended the due date. Judge Romero Molina recused himself on November 17, 2014, and Judge David Wellington Chew was assigned to the cause on November 18, 2014. Marquez filed the third request and notice of past-due findings on January 29, 2015.

DISPOSITION

other