

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

Delmond Cozart v. Oklahoma State Reformatory

Cozart · No. CIV-26-183-J · Decided March 23, 2026

SUMMARY

The United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma adopts a magistrate judge’s recommendation and denies Delmond Cozart’s application to proceed in forma pauperis in a 28 U.S.C. § 2241 habeas proceeding. The court directs him to pay the $5.00 filing fee by April 13, 2026, or the petition will be dismissed without prejudice.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the court should deny Petitioner's application to proceed in forma pauperis because he had sufficient funds to pay the filing fee.
2. Whether Petitioner's failure to object to the magistrate judge's Report and Recommendation waived appellate review of the factual and legal issues addressed in that recommendation.

HOLDINGS

1. A party who fails to object to a magistrate judge's Report and Recommendation by the prescribed deadline waives appellate review of the factual and legal issues addressed in the recommendation.
2. The application to proceed in forma pauperis was properly denied because Petitioner had sufficient funds to pay the $5.00 filing fee.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Delmond Cozart, a state inmate proceeding pro se, filed a § 2241 habeas petition and sought leave to proceed in forma pauperis. The magistrate judge determined that Cozart had sufficient funds to pay the $5.00 filing fee. Cozart did not object to the Report and Recommendation by the court-ordered deadline.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The matter was referred to Magistrate Judge Suzanne Mitchell for initial proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B), (C). The magistrate judge recommended denying the application to proceed in forma pauperis. The district court adopted the Report and Recommendation, denied the application, and ordered Petitioner to pay the $5.00 filing fee by April 13, 2026, or face dismissal of the petition without prejudice.
