QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the parties' failure to file timely objections to the magistrate judge's Report and Recommendation waived subsequent review.
2. Whether the court should adopt the Report and Recommendation and deny Plaintiff's application to proceed in forma pauperis.

HOLDINGS

1. A party's failure to file objections within the specified fourteen-day period constitutes a waiver of subsequent review under Local Rule 72.3(b).
2. The court adopted the magistrate judge's Report and Recommendation in its entirety and denied Plaintiff's motion to proceed in forma pauperis.

KEY QUOTATIONS

"I consider their failure to file objections to "constitute a waiver of subsequent review," Local R. 72.3(b), and adopt Judge Sheperd's R & R in its entirety as the final Order of this Court."

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiff Ronald Douglas Wright sought leave to proceed in forma pauperis. A magistrate judge recommended that the application be denied and notified the parties of the fourteen-day objection period. No party filed objections within that period.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On February 4, 2026, Magistrate Judge Reuben J. Sheperd issued a Report and Recommendation recommending denial of Plaintiff's application to proceed in forma pauperis. The parties were advised that objections were due within fourteen days, but none were filed. The district court treated the failure to object as a waiver of subsequent review, adopted the Report and Recommendation in its entirety, and denied the motion.
