

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA, JACKSONVILLE DIVISION

Aushea Williams v. Sheriff Homer Deloach, et al.

Williams v. Deloach · No. 3:25-cv-1021-JEP-SJH · Decided January 14, 2026

SUMMARY

The United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida denied Plaintiff Aushea Williams’s motion for relief from judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(3). The court also denied as moot Williams’s renewed motion for class certification and appointment of counsel, explaining that he had not shown fraud or misconduct preventing him from presenting his case and could not represent other inmates.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Jacksonville Division
WRITING FOR THE COURT	Jordan E. Pratt
JURISDICTION	United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Jacksonville Division
DECIDED	January 14, 2026
DOCKET	3:25-cv-1021-JEP-SJH
DISPOSITION	other
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	Plaintiff moved for relief from the final judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(3) and renewed his motion for class certification and appointment of counsel after the action had been dismissed.
STANDARD OF REVIEW	A motion under Rule 60(b)(3) requires clear and convincing evidence that the adverse party obtained the result through fraud, misrepresentation, or other misconduct, and that the alleged misconduct prevented the movant from fully presenting his case.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	unpublished district court order; nonprecedential
PARTIES	Aushea Williams v. Sheriff Homer Deloach, et al.

TOPICS

motion for reconsideration

class actions

civil procedure

prisoners rights

PRACTICE AREAS

civil procedure

civil rights

prisoner litigation

class actions

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether Plaintiff was entitled to relief from the final judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(3) based on alleged fraud, misrepresentation, or misconduct by a jail employee.
2. Whether Plaintiff's renewed motion for class certification and appointment of counsel should be granted.

HOLDINGS

1. Relief from judgment was properly denied because Plaintiff failed to provide clear and convincing evidence that a jail employee engaged in fraud, misrepresentation, or other misconduct, or that any such conduct prevented him from fully presenting his case.
2. The renewed motion for class certification and appointment of counsel was denied as moot because Plaintiff could not represent the rights of other inmates in this action and could instead file a new case to pursue claims on his own behalf.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“To obtain relief under Rule 60(b)(3), “the moving party must prove by clear and convincing evidence that the adverse party obtained the [result] through fraud, misrepresentation[], or other misconduct,” and the purported fraud must have prevented the movant “from fully presenting his case.”” (Order at 1)

“Plaintiff provides no evidence—such as a mail log—showing that a PCJ employee prevented him from receiving and complying with this Court’s Order.” (Order at 2)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiff alleged that an unnamed employee at the Putnam County Jail prevented him from receiving and complying with the Court's order allowing him time to file an amended complaint. He offered no supporting evidence, such as a mail log, to substantiate the allegation. Plaintiff also sought to represent himself and other inmates in a class action challenging allegedly unconstitutional jail policies, despite the Court's prior instruction that he could not represent other inmates.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Court had previously dismissed the action after granting Plaintiff time to file an amended complaint and had advised him that he could not represent the rights of other inmates. Plaintiff asserted that an unnamed jail employee prevented him from receiving and complying with the amendment order. The Court denied relief from judgment and denied the renewed motion for class certification and appointment of counsel as moot.

DISPOSITION

other

CASES CITED

- Waddell v. Hendry County Sheriff's Office, 329 F.3d 1300, 1309 (11th Cir. 2003)

Retrieved from lawtools.ai · <https://lawtools.ai/cases/state/united-states-district-court-for-the-middle-district-of-florida-jacksonville-division-united-states/2026/aushea-williams-v-sheriff-homer-deloch-et-al-bt1uz28p>