QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the trial court's February 11, 2021 order staying the underlying litigation warranted mandamus relief.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The underlying litigation involved disputes among the insurer relators, Fertitta-related entities, and other insurers. The 133rd District Court of Harris County entered an order staying that litigation on February 11, 2021. The insurer relators challenged the stay through a petition for writ of mandamus.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The trial court in Harris County Cause No. 2020-64162 entered an order on February 11, 2021, staying the underlying litigation. The insurer relators petitioned the Court of Appeals for a writ of mandamus challenging that stay. The court denied the petition and dismissed pending motions as moot.
