

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF ARKANSAS, FORT SMITH DIVISION

Aaron J. James v. Frank Bisignano, Commissioner, Social Security Administration

Civil No. 2:25-cv-02097-TLB-MEF · No. Civil No. 2:25-cv-02097-TLB-MEF · Decided February 4, 2026

SUMMARY

The magistrate judge recommends awarding Aaron J. James $7,120.80 in attorney’s fees and costs under the Equal Access to Justice Act after finding that he was the prevailing party, the Commissioner’s position was not substantially justified, and the requested hours and enhanced hourly rate were reasonable. The report also addresses payment of the award under Astrue v. Ratliff and gives the parties fourteen days to file specific objections.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	United States District Court for the Western District of Arkansas, Fort Smith Division
WRITING FOR THE COURT	Mark E. Ford
JURISDICTION	United States District Court for the Western District of Arkansas, Fort Smith Division
DECIDED	February 4, 2026
DOCKET	Civil No. 2:25-cv-02097-TLB-MEF
DISPOSITION	other
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	Plaintiff moved for attorney fees and costs under the Equal Access to Justice Act after prevailing in a Social Security benefits action. The magistrate judge issued a report and recommendation recommending an award of $7,120.80.
STANDARD OF REVIEW	Objections to the report and recommendation must be timely and specific to trigger de novo review by the district court under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1).
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	nonprecedential

TOPICS

attorney fees

administrative law

judicial review of agency action

civil procedure

PRACTICE AREAS

Social Security

administrative law

attorney fees

civil procedure

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether James was entitled to attorney fees and costs under the Equal Access to Justice Act.
2. Whether the requested hourly rate, number of hours, and filing-fee reimbursement were reasonable and authorized.
3. Whether the EAJA award should be payable to James or directly to his attorney.

HOLDINGS

1. The magistrate judge recommended that James receive an EAJA award because he was the prevailing party, the government's position was not substantially justified, and the requested work and fees were reasonable.
2. The recommended EAJA award should be payable to James, but it may be paid directly to his attorney if James validly assigned his fee rights and owes no outstanding debt to the federal government.

KEY QUOTATIONS

"It is the opinion of the undersigned that the Plaintiff is entitled to a fee award in this case, as he is the prevailing party, the government's decision to deny benefits was not "substantially justified," the hourly rate requested for attorney hours does not exceed the CPI for the years in question, and the time asserted to have been spent in the representation of the Plaintiff before the district court is reasonable." (Discussion)

"Accordingly, the undersigned recommends awarding Plaintiff the sum of $7,120.80 for attorney's fees pursuant to the EAJA, 28 U.S.C. § 2412." (Conclusion)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

James prevailed in an action challenging the Commissioner's denial of Social Security benefits. He requested $7,120.80 under the EAJA, based on 26.65 attorney hours in 2025 and 2026 at an hourly rate of $252.00, plus reimbursement of a $405.00 filing fee. The Commissioner did not object to the requested award.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Aaron J. James sought judicial review of the Commissioner's denial of Social Security benefits and prevailed. He then moved for $7,120.80 in EAJA attorney fees and costs, consisting of attorney time and a $405 filing fee. The Commissioner filed no objection, and the magistrate judge recommended granting the motion subject to the parties' right to object under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1).

DISPOSITION

other

CASES CITED

- Jackson v. Bowen, 807 F.2d 127, 128 (8th Cir. 1986)
- Johnson v. Sullivan, 919 F.2d 503, 505 (8th Cir. 1990)
- Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 430 (1983)
- Astrue v. Ratliff, 560 U.S. 586, 596 (2010)

Retrieved from lawtools.ai · <https://lawtools.ai/cases/federal/united-states-district-court-for-the-western-district-of-ark/2026/aaron-j-james-v-frank-bisignano-commissioner-social-csj19sbk>