QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether the relator's agreed motion to dismiss the original mandamus proceeding should be granted.
- Whether the mandamus proceeding should be dismissed without reference to the merits and without prejudice.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“We lift the stay order previously entered in this proceeding, and we dismiss this original proceeding without reference to the merits and without prejudice.” (at 2)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Smith sought mandamus relief concerning an order entered in litigation brought against him by Carl Cannon, Lisa Cannon, Mark Atkins, Cathy Atkins, David Cannon, Val Cannon, Chris Gaskill, Cindy Gaskill, Justin Regan, and Shannon Regan. The trial court was permitted to consider an agreed final judgment, after which Smith requested dismissal of his original proceeding; the court of appeals did not reach the merits of the mandamus petition.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Stephen A. Smith filed a petition for a writ of mandamus seeking to compel the 284th District Court of Montgomery County to vacate an order. The court of appeals initially stayed further trial-court proceedings, later lifted the stay to permit consideration of an agreed final judgment, and then granted Smith's agreed motion to dismiss the mandamus proceeding.

DISPOSITION

dismissed

REMAND INSTRUCTIONS

The court lifted the stay previously entered in the proceeding; no remand on the merits was ordered.
