QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether an attorney delinquent in required New York attorney registration, and therefore subject to potential disciplinary action, is eligible to resign from the New York bar for nondisciplinary reasons.
2. What documentation must support any future application for resignation.

HOLDINGS

1. An attorney who is delinquent in New York attorney registration requirements and consequently subject to potential disciplinary action is ineligible for nondisciplinary resignation.
2. Any future application by Printy must be supported by proof that he has fully satisfied the requirements of Judiciary Law § 468-a and 22 NYCRR 118.1.

KEY QUOTATIONS

*“Inasmuch as Printy is therefore subject to potential disciplinary action (see Judiciary Law § 468-a [5]; Rules of Professional Conduct [22 NYCRR 1200.0] rule 8.4 [d]; see also Matter of Attorneys in Violation of Judiciary Law § 468-a, 113 AD3d 1020, 1021 [2014]), he is ineligible for nondisciplinary resignation and his application must be denied” (1)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Gary Lee Printy Jr. was admitted to practice by the Third Department in 2011 and maintained a business address in Tampa, Florida. He sought to resign from the New York bar for nondisciplinary reasons but had failed to register for the biennial period beginning in 2017. Because that delinquency subjected him to potential disciplinary action, the court concluded that he was ineligible for nondisciplinary resignation.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Printy, who was admitted to practice in New York in 2011, applied to the Appellate Division for nondisciplinary resignation. The Attorney Grievance Committee opposed the application because Printy was delinquent in his biennial attorney registration. The court denied the application and stated that any future application must include proof of compliance with the applicable registration requirements.
