PRACTICE AREAS

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the action should be dismissed without prejudice because plaintiff failed to pay the filing fee and comply with the court's order.
2. Whether dismissal was appropriate under the applicable five-factor test after plaintiff failed to respond despite multiple opportunities and a warning that noncompliance could result in dismissal.

HOLDINGS

1. Dismissal without prejudice was recommended because plaintiff failed to pay the filing fee, failed to file the required complaint or seek in forma pauperis status, and failed to comply with the order to show cause.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“In recommending this action be dismissed, the court has considered “(1) the public’s interest in expeditious resolution of litigation; (2) the court’s need to manage its docket; (3) the risk of prejudice to the defendants; (4) the public policy favoring disposition of cases on their merits; and (5) the availability of less drastic alternatives.”” (at 1)

“IT IS RECOMMENDED that this action be dismissed without prejudice for failure to pay the filing fee and failure to comply with the court’s order.” (at 2)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Virgil Douglas Randall, a state prisoner, filed a letter alleging assaults and dangerous living conditions rather than a complaint. He did not comply with an order to file a complaint and either pay the filing fee or seek leave to proceed in forma pauperis, and he also failed to respond to a subsequent order to show cause.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Plaintiff initially filed a letter concerning assaults and dangerous living conditions. The magistrate judge ordered him to file a complaint and either pay the filing fee or apply to proceed in forma pauperis. After plaintiff failed to respond, the court issued an order to show cause, which also went unanswered, and recommended dismissal without prejudice.
