OPINION

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT 9 CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA 10 WESTERN DIVISION 11 AMBER WIDBY, an individual; CASE NO. 2:25-cv-05648 DMG (JCx) 12 [Assigned to Hon. Dolly M. Gee in 13 Plaintiff, Courtroom 8C] 14 vs.
STIPULATED PROTECTIVE 15 ORDER 16 COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES, a California public entity; ELI [CHANGES MADE BY COURT TO 17 VERA, an individual; ANGELA PARAGRAPHS 3, 8, 9.3 &13] 18 CARRASCO, an individual; and DOES 1-20, inclusive; 19 20
Defendants.

21 1. INTRODUCTION 22 1.1 Purposes and Limitations. This civil rights action alleges, 23 among other claims, an unreasonable seizure, an unlawful search, a 24 conspiracy to violate civil rights, failure to intervene, deliberate indifference 25 to serious medical needs while in custody, and municipal liability against 26 the County of Los Angeles and individual Los Angeles County Sheriff's 27 1 2024 at Plaintiff's residence, Plaintiff's subsequent arrest and detention, 2 and her medical treatment and housing in the Century Regional Detention 3 Facility (Lynwood Jail) and transfer to other facilities.

Discovery in this 4 action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private 5 information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use 6 for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. 7 Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter 8 the following Stipulated Protective Order.

The parties acknowledge that 9 this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or 10 responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public 11 disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are 12 entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles.

The 13 parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3 (Filing Protected 14 Material), below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle 15 them to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets 16 forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be 17 applied when a party seeks permission from the Court to file material under 18 seal.

19 1.2 Good Cause Statement. 20 This action is likely to involve body-worn camera recordings, 21 dispatch/incident reports, operational details concerning Los Angeles 22 Sheriff's Department ("LASD") response, protective sweeps, personal data 23 of civilians, Plaintiff's probation information, Plaintiff's correctional health 24 and jail security materials, including but not limited to Plaintiff's personal 25 health information, medication records, medication administration records, 26 and Correctional Health Services' ("CHS") policies/protocols regarding 27 inmate medical care and medication handling within secured facilities, and 1 limited to witnesses and third parties identified in the pleadings, incident 2 reports, family members, medical staff, and other detainees, whose names, 3 contact information, and statements may appear in records and videos for 4 which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any 5 purpose other than prosecution of this action is warranted.

Such 6 confidential and proprietary materials and information consist of, among 7 other things, information implicating privacy rights of third parties, 8 information otherwise generally unavailable to the public, or which may be 9 privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure under state or federal 10 statutes, court rules, case decisions, or common law.

Accordingly, to 11 expedite the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt resolution of 12 disputes over confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately protect 13 information the parties are entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the 14 parties are permitted reasonable necessary uses of such material in 15 preparation for and in the conduct of trial, to address their handling at the 16 end of the litigation, and serve the ends of justice, a protective order for such information is justified in this matter.

It is the intent of the parties that 17 information will not be designated as confidential for tactical reasons and 18 that nothing be so designated without a good faith belief that it has been 19 maintained in a confidential, non-public manner, and there is good cause 20 why it should not be part of the public record of this case. 21

1.3 Acknowledgment of Procedure for Filing Under Seal. The 22 parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3, below, that this 23 Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential 24 information under seal; Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must 25 be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks 26 permission from the court to file material under seal.

27 1 There is a strong presumption that the public has a right of access to 2 judicial proceedings and records in civil cases. In connection with non- 3 dispositive motions, good cause must be shown to support a filing under 4 seal. See Kamakana v. City and Cnty. of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1176 5 (9th Cir. 2006), Phillips ex rel. Ests. of Byrd v. Gen. Motors Corp., 307 F.3d 6 1206, 1210–11 (9th Cir.

2002), Makar-Welbon v. Sony Elecs., Inc., 187 F.R.D. 576, 577 (E.D. Wis. 1999) (even stipulated protective orders require a good cause showing), and a specific showing of good cause or compelling reasons with proper evidentiary support and legal justification, must be made with respect to Protected Material that a party seeks to file under seal.

The parties' mere designation of Disclosure or Discovery Material as CONFIDENTIAL does not—without the submission of competent evidence by declaration, establishing that the material sought to be filed under seal qualifies as confidential, privileged, or otherwise protectable—constitute good cause. Further, if a party requests sealing related to a dispositive motion or trial, then compelling reasons, not only good cause, for the sealing must be shown, and the relief sought shall be narrowly tailored to serve the specific interest to be protected.

See Pintos v. Pac. Creditors Ass'n, 605 F.3d 665, 2016-77-79 (9th Cir. 2010). For each item or type of information, document, or thing sought to be filed or introduced under seal in connection with a dispositive motion or trial, the party seeking protection must articulate compelling reasons, supported by specific facts and legal justification, for the requested sealing order.

Again, competent evidence supporting the application to file documents under seal must be provided by declaration. Any document that is not confidential, privileged, or otherwise protectable in its entirety will not be filed under seal if the confidential version for public viewing, omitting only the confidential, privileged, or otherwise protectable portions of the document, shall be filed.

Any application that seeks to file documents under seal in their entirety should include an explanation of why redaction is not feasible.

SCOPE 4 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not 5 only Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information 6 copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, 7 summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, 8 conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might 9 reveal Protected Material other than during a court hearing or at trial.

10 Any use of Protected Material during a court hearing or at trial shall 11 be governed by the orders of the presiding judge. This Stipulated 12 Protective Order does not govern the use of Protected Material during a 13 court hearing or at trial. 14 4. DURATION 15 Even after Final Disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality 16 obligations imposed by this Stipulated Protective Order shall remain in 17 effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order 18 otherwise directs.

Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this Action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this Action, including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to limit any such designation. Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Designating Party to sanctions. If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the inapplicable designation.

5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Stipulated Protective Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Stipulated Protective Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

Designation in conformity with this Stipulated Protective Order requires: (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix at a minimum, the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that contains protected material.

If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins). A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents available for inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which documents it would like copied and produced.

During the inspection and before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed CONFIDENTIAL. After the inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants copied and 9 produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or 10 portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Stipulated Protective 11 Order.

Then, before producing the specified documents, the Producing 12 Party must affix the “CONFIDENTIAL” legend to each page that contains 13 Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page 14 qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the 15 protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

16 (b) for testimony given in depositions that the Designating Party 17 identify the Disclosure or Discovery Material on the record, before the close 18 of the deposition all protected testimony. 19 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary 20 and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a 21 prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the 22 information is stored the “CONFIDENTIAL” legend.

If only a portion or 23 portions of the information warrants protection, the Producing Party, to the 24 extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s). 25 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an 26 inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, 27 standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s right to secure protection 1 the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the 2 material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Stipulated 3 Protective Order.

4 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS 5 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge 6 a designation of confidentiality at any time that is consistent with the 7 court’s Scheduling Order. 8 6.2 Meet and Confer.

The Challenging Party shall initiate the 9 dispute resolution process under Local Rule 37.1 et seq. 10 6.3 Joint Stipulation. If the Designating Party persists in 11 designating the document or other material in question as Confidential, 12 the objecting party may move the Court for an order removing or replacing 13 the “Confidential” designation. Any challenge submitted to the Court shall 14 be via a joint stipulation pursuant to Local Rule 37-2.

15 6.4 Burden of Persuasion. The burden of persuasion in any such 16 challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating Party. Frivolous 17 challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or 18 impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose 19 the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has 20 waived or withdrawn the confidentiality designation, all parties shall 21 continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to which 22 it is entitled under the Producing Party’s designation until the court rules 23 on the challenge.

24 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL 25 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material 26 that is disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in 27 connection with this Action only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting 1 categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. 2 When the Action reaches a Final Disposition, a Receiving Party must 3 comply with the provisions of section 13 below.

4 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving 5 Party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is 6 limited to the persons authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order. 7 7.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless 8 otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating 9 Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated 10 “CONFIDENTIAL” only: 11 (a) to the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this 12 Action, as well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it 13 is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this Action; 14 (b) to the officers, directors, and employees (including House 15 Counsel) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary 16 for this Action; 17 (c) to Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to 18 whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have 19 signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A); 20 (d) to the court and its personnel; 21 (e) to court reporters and their staff; 22 (f) to professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and 23 Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this 24 Action and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be 25 Bound” (Exhibit A); 26 (g) to the author or recipient of a document containing the 27 information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or 1 (h) during their depositions, to witnesses, and attorneys for 2 witnesses, in the Action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary, 3 provided: (1) the deposing party requests that the witness sign the 4 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A); and (2) the 5 witness will not be permitted to keep any confidential information unless 6 they sign the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), 7 unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court.

8 Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that 9 reveal Protected Material may be separately bound by the court reporter 10 and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this 11 Stipulated Protective Order; and 12 (i) to any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting 13 personnel, mutually agreed upon by any of the parties engaged in 14 settlement discussions.

15 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED 16 PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION 17 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other 18 litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated 19 in this Action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must: 20 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such 21 notification shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order; 22 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena 23 or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material 24 covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order.

Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be 1 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party 2 served with the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information 3 designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by 4 the court from which the subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has 5 obtained the Designating Party’s permission or unless otherwise required 6 by the law or court order.

The Designating Party shall bear the burden 7 and expense of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material 8 and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or 9 encouraging a Receiving Party in this Action to disobey a lawful directive 10 from another court. 11 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE 12 PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION 13 9.1 Application.

The terms of this Stipulated Protective Order are 14 applicable to information produced by a Non-Party in this Action and 15 designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information produced by Non- 16 Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and 17 relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be 18 construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

19 9.2 Notification. In the event that a Party is required, by a valid 20 discovery request, to produce a Non-Party’s confidential information in its 21 possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement with the Non-Party 22 not to produce the Non-Party’s confidential information, then the Party 23 shall: 24 (a) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non- 25 Party that some or all of the information requested is subject to a 26 confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party; 27 (b) make the information requested available for inspection by the 1 9.3 Conditions of Production.

If the Non-Party fails to seek a 2 protective order from this court within 14 days of receiving the notice and 3 accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the Non- 4 Party’s confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the 5 Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not 6 produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the 7 confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the 8 court unless otherwise required by the law or court order.

Absent a court 9 order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of 10 seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material. 11 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED 12 MATERIAL 13 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has 14 disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not 15 authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party 16 must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all 17 unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or 18 persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of 19 this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the 20 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A).

21 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR 22 OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL 23 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that 24 certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or 25 other protection, the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth 26 in Rule 26(b)(5)(B) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

This provision 27 1 discovery order that provides for production without prior privilege review. 2 Pursuant to Rules 502(d) and (e) of the Federal Rules of Evidence, insofar 3 as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a 4 communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or 5 work product protection, the parties may incorporate their agreement in 6 the stipulated protective order submitted to the court.

7 12. MISCELLANEOUS 8 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective 9 Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the court 10 in the future. 11 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of 12 this Stipulated Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise 13 would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on 14 any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order.

Similarly, 15 no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any 16 of the material covered by this Stipulated Protective Order. 17 12.3 Filing Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Local Rule 79-5. Protected 18 Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing 19 the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue.

If a Party's request 20 to file Protected Material under seal is denied by the court, then the 21 Receiving Party may file the information in the public record unless 22 otherwise instructed by the court. 23 13. FINAL DISPOSITION 24 After the Final Disposition of this Action, as defined in paragraphs 25 2.8 & 4, within 60 days of a written request by the Designating Party, each 26 Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party 27 1 Material” includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any 2 other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material.

3 Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving 4 Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if 5 not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day 6 deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the 7 Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the 8 Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material.

Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel is entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material.

Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION). VIOLATION Any violation of this Stipulated Protective Order may be punished by any and all appropriate measures including, without limitation, contempt proceedings and/or monetary sanctions.
