

THIRD COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS

Maurice Samuel Arrington v. State

No. 03-13-00066-CR, Third Court of Appeals of Texas (March 16, 2015)

SUMMARY

This document is a filing correspondence from appellate counsel to the Clerk of the Third Court of Appeals in Texas. Counsel certifies compliance with Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 48.4 by sending the opinion, judgment, and notice of the right to file a pro se petition for discretionary review to the client, and requests that the letter and certified-mail return receipt be filed in the appellate record.

CASE DETAILS

|                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|--------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| COURT              | Third Court of Appeals of Texas                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| JURISDICTION       | Texas                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| DECIDED            | March 16, 2015                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| DOCKET             | 03-13-00066-CR                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| DISPOSITION        | other                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| PROCEDURAL POSTURE | The supplied document is appellate counsel's certification that counsel sent the court's opinion and judgment and notice of the right to file a pro se petition for discretionary review under Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 48.4. |
| PRECEDENTIAL VALUE | unknown                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| PARTIES            | Maurice Samuel Arrington v. The State of Texas                                                                                                                                                                                         |

TOPICS

appellate procedure

PRACTICE AREAS

criminal appellate procedure

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The supplied text contains no substantive facts concerning the underlying criminal case. It consists of a certification letter and a domestic return receipt relating to counsel's service of the appellate opinion, judgment, and notice of the right to seek discretionary review.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The document references an appeal in Cause No. 03-13-00066-CR in the Third Court of Appeals of Texas. It does not provide the underlying trial-court proceedings, the appellate issues, or the court's disposition.

DISPOSITION

other