

FOURTEENTH COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS

Kenton Fryer v. State

No. 14-18-00381-CR (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] Aug. 14, 2018) (per curiam order) · No. No. 14-18-00381-CR · Decided August 14, 2018

SUMMARY

The Fourteenth Court of Appeals ordered the official court reporter to file the overdue reporter's record in Kenton Fryer's criminal appeal by September 13, 2018. The court warned that no further extension would be granted absent exceptional circumstances and could direct the trial court to conduct a hearing if the record was not timely filed.

OPINION

PER CURIAM.

Order filed August 14, 2018. In The Fourteenth Court of Appeals _____ NO. 14-18-00381-CR _____ KENTON FRYER, Appellant V. THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee On Appeal from the 21st District Court Bastrop County, Texas Trial Court Cause No. 16,029 ORDER The reporter's record in this case was originally due June 18, 2018. See Tex. R. App. P. 35.1.

On June 19, 2018, this court ordered the court reporter to file the record within 15 days. In response, the court reporter sought an extension of time to file the record. The extension was granted in part through August 6, 2018. See Tex. R. App. P. 35.3(c).

The record has not been filed with the court. Because the reporter's record has not been filed timely, we issue the following order. We order Margaret Raiford, the official court reporter, to file the record in this appeal on or before September 13, 2018. No further extension will be entertained absent exceptional circumstances.

The trial and appellate courts are jointly responsible for ensuring that the appellate record is timely filed. See Tex. R. App. P. 35.3(c). If Margaret Raiford does not timely file the record as ordered, we may issue an order directing the trial court to conduct a hearing to determine the reason for the failure to file the record.
