QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether Plaintiff's requested attorney fee under 42 U.S.C. § 406(b) was reasonable and should be approved.

HOLDINGS

1. The requested $4,800 attorney fee was reasonable and was approved under 42 U.S.C. § 406(b).

KEY QUOTATIONS

*“Applying the standards set by Gisbrecht v. Barnhart, 535 U.S. 789, 796 (2002), the Court has reviewed the record in this case and finds that the requested fees are reasonable.”*

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiff sought an award of attorney fees for counsel's representation in the Social Security matter. Counsel had already received $587.08 under the Equal Access to Justice Act. The court found the requested § 406(b) fee of $4,800 reasonable.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

After the Social Security case, Plaintiff filed an unopposed motion for attorney fees. The court reviewed the record, found the requested fees reasonable, granted the motion, awarded $4,800 under § 406(b), and directed counsel to refund $587.08 previously received under the Equal Access to Justice Act.
