PRACTICE AREAS

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the district court should adopt the magistrate judge's Report and Recommendation when no party filed objections.
2. Whether the Commissioner's final decision should be reversed and the matter remanded under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g).

HOLDINGS

1. When no party objects to a magistrate judge's Report and Recommendation, the district court may accept the recommendation after satisfying itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record.
2. The Commissioner's final decision is reversed, and the matter is remanded pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) for further consideration consistent with the Report and Recommendation.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.” (315)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The case concerns Plaintiff Marnie W.'s appeal from a final decision of the Commissioner of Social Security. The magistrate judge recommended that the Commissioner's decision be reversed and that the case be remanded under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g).

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Plaintiff filed an appeal challenging the Commissioner's final decision. The matter was referred to Magistrate Judge Joel C. Hoppe, who recommended reversal and a sentence-four remand under 42 U.S.C. § 405(g). The district court found no clear error, adopted the R&R in its entirety, reversed the Commissioner's decision, remanded for further consideration, and dismissed and struck the matter from the active docket.

ORDER ADOPTING REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

This matter is before the court on Plaintiff Marnie W.'s Social Security Appeal. (Dkts. 1, 7, 13.) Pursuant to Standing Order 2025-02 and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B), this matter was referred to the Honorable Joel C. Hoppe, U.S. Magistrate Judge, for a recommended disposition. On May 21, 2026, Judge Hoppe entered a Report and Recommendation ("R&R"), (Dkt. 18), recommending that the court reverse the Commissioner of Social Security's final decision and remand this case under the fourth sentence of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g). The parties had fourteen days to file objections to the R&R, but no party did. The court has reviewed the administrative record, filings, and R&R, and has found no clear error. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. The Report and Recommendation, (Dkt. 18), is ADOPTED in its entirety;
2. The Commissionet's final decision is REVERSED;

'Tf there are no objections to the magistrate judge's report, a court "need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation." Diamond v. Colonial Life Accident Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 315 4th Cir. 2005) Ginternal quotation marks omitted).

3. The matter is REMANDED pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) for further consideration consistent with the R&R; and

4. 'The matter is DISMISSED and STRICKEN from the active docket of the court.

An appropriate judgment order will be entered. It is SO ORDERED. ENTERED this 8th day of June, 2026.
