PRACTICE AREAS

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether Powers violated Disciplinary Rules prohibiting illegal conduct involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation, and conduct adversely reflecting on a lawyer's fitness to practice law.
2. Whether the appropriate sanction for Powers's extensive fraudulent conduct and felony convictions was indefinite suspension or permanent disbarment.

HOLDINGS

1. By overseeing an operation that fabricated closing documents for more than 300 loans, participating in fraudulent real-estate transactions, signing false HUD forms, and filing false income-tax returns, Powers violated DR 1-102(A)(3), DR 1-102(A)(4), and DR 1-102(A)(6).
2. Permanent disbarment was warranted for Powers's extensive participation in a fraudulent loan-flipping scheme, his concealment of income through false tax returns, and his resulting felony convictions.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Despite the breadth of the underlying fraudulent conduct, the Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline recommended only the indefinite suspension of the lawyer’s license to practice law. For these egregious violations of the Code of Professional Responsibility, we order his permanent disbarment.” (at 473)

“A lawyer who engages in the kind of criminal conduct committed by respondent violates the duty to maintain personal honesty and integrity, which is one of the most basic professional obligations owed by lawyers to the public.” (at 477)

“Because respondent’s ethical breaches are at least as damaging to the legal profession and public as those committed in Bein, disbarment is appropriate.” (at 478)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Powers co-owned and oversaw Premier Land Title Agency, which participated in approximately 310 real-estate-loan closings as part of a property-flipping scheme. The scheme used fabricated appraisals, pay stubs, W-2 forms, bank statements, employment records, and HUD forms, including forms Powers signed falsely certifying that buyers had made down payments. The resulting actual or intended losses to financial and lending institutions totaled approximately $3.49 million, and Powers also filed false federal income-tax returns concealing income from the scheme. He pleaded guilty to making a material false statement in a loan application and filing a false tax return.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Powers was convicted in federal court of making a material false statement in a loan application and filing a false income tax return. The Cincinnati Bar Association charged him with violations of three Disciplinary Rules. A hearing panel found misconduct and recommended indefinite suspension, and the Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline adopted that recommendation. The Supreme Court of Ohio sustained the relator's objections and imposed permanent disbarment.
