

FOURTH COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS, SAN ANTONIO

Gary Lee Mount v. State

Mount v. State · Decided October 29, 2015

SUMMARY

This appears to be a per curiam Texas criminal appellate opinion involving the admission, preservation, or use of evidence concerning an alleged prior or extraneous offense. The text is severely degraded by OCR, so the precise legal issue and disposition cannot be reliably determined.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The text appears to concern a criminal appeal involving the admission or use of evidence, including discussion of a prior verdict or prior conduct. Because the supplied OCR is materially corrupted, the material underlying facts cannot be reliably reconstructed without risking fabrication.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The supplied text is a per curiam opinion from the Texas Court of Appeals. The OCR is substantially corrupted and does not reliably state the trial-court judgment, appellate disposition, or complete procedural history.
