

FOURTH COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS AT SAN ANTONIO

Cash Biz, LP, Redwood Financial, LLC, Cash Zone, LLC dba Cash Biz v. Hiawatha Henry, Addie Harris, Montray Norris, and Roosevelt Coleman Jr., et al.

No. 04-15-00469-CV · No. No. 04-15-00469-CV · Decided August 25, 2015

SUMMARY

The Fourth Court of Appeals of Texas granted the appellants' agreed first motion for a ten-day extension of time to file their brief in this accelerated appeal. The appellants' brief was ordered due on September 3, 2015, pursuant to Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 38.6(d).

CASE DETAILS

COURT	Fourth Court of Appeals of Texas at San Antonio
WRITING FOR THE COURT	Patricia O. Alvarez
JURISDICTION	Texas
DECIDED	August 25, 2015
DOCKET	No. 04-15-00469-CV
DISPOSITION	other
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	Accelerated appeal in which the appellants moved by agreement for a ten-day extension of time to file their appellate brief.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	Published procedural order
PARTIES	Cash Biz, LP, Redwood Financial, LLC, Cash Zone, LLC dba Cash Biz v. Hiawatha Henry, Addie Harris, Montray Norris, Roosevelt Coleman Jr., et al.

TOPICS

appellate procedurecivil procedurecommercial litigation

PRACTICE AREAS

Appellate procedureCivil procedureCommercial litigation

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the appellants should receive a ten-day extension of the deadline for filing their appellate brief.

HOLDINGS

1. The agreed first motion for an extension of time was granted, and the appellants' brief was due on September 3, 2015.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Appellant’s motion for an extension of time to file Appellant’s brief is GRANTED. Appellant’s brief is due on September 3, 2015.” (Order)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The appellants' brief in the accelerated appeal was due on August 24, 2015. Before that deadline, the appellants filed an agreed first motion requesting a ten-day extension, through September 3, 2015.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The appeal arose from the 166th Judicial District Court of Bexar County, Texas, trial court cause number 2015-CI-01545. Before the appellants' brief was due on August 24, 2015, the appellants filed an agreed motion requesting an extension until September 3, 2015. The court of appeals granted the motion.

DISPOSITION

other