QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether plaintiffs' failure to respond to defendants' motion to dismiss warranted an order to show cause concerning sanctions.
2. Whether the hearing on defendants' motion to dismiss should be continued to permit plaintiffs to respond.

HOLDINGS

1. Because plaintiffs failed to file the opposition or statement of non-opposition required by E.D. Cal. Local Rule 230(c), the court required them to show cause why sanctions should not be imposed and warned that failure to comply with the order could result in a recommendation that the action be dismissed.
2. The court continued the hearing on defendants' motion to dismiss from December 4, 2025, to January 15, 2026, at 10:00 a.m., and established deadlines for plaintiffs' response, plaintiffs' show-cause filing, and any defendants' reply.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Involuntary dismissal is a harsh penalty, but a district court has a duty to administer justice expeditiously and avoid needless burden for the parties.” (at 1)

“Plaintiffs’ failure to respond to this order will constitute a failure to comply with a court order and will result in a recommendation that this action be dismissed.” (at 2)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Defendants NewRez LLC, Prestige Default Services LLC, and Ghidotti Berger LLP filed a motion to dismiss plaintiffs' complaint for failure to state a claim. Plaintiffs had not filed an opposition or statement of non-opposition by the time of the order. The court addressed the missed filing deadline and the need to manage its docket without deciding the merits of the motion to dismiss.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Defendants filed a motion to dismiss on October 21, 2025. Plaintiffs did not respond within fourteen days as required by E.D. Cal. Local Rule 230(c). The court ordered plaintiffs to show cause why sanctions should not be imposed, warned that failure to respond could result in a recommendation that the action be dismissed, and continued the motion-to-dismiss hearing.
