

COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIRST DISTRICT OF TEXAS

Yazid Malik Bey v. Quest IRA Inc.

No. 01-19-00683-CV · No. 01-19-00683-CV · Decided March 10, 2020

SUMMARY

The First Court of Appeals of Texas dismissed Yazid Malik Bey's appeal for want of prosecution because he failed to timely file an appellant's brief or request an extension. The court also dismissed all pending motions as moot.

OPINION

Yazid Malik Bey v. Quest Ira Inc

PER CURIAM.

Opinion issued March 10, 2020 In The Court of Appeals For The First District of Texas
NO. 01-19-00683-CV

YAZID MALIK BEY, Appellant V. QUEST IRA INC, Appellee On Appeal from the County Civil Court at Law No. 2 Harris County, Texas Trial Court Case No. 1139364

MEMORANDUM OPINION

This is an appeal from the trial court's final judgment signed on September 9, 2019. Appellant's brief was originally due on October 31, 2019. On November 4, 2019, we issued a notice advising appellant that unless his brief was filed within ten days, we might dismiss the appeal for want of prosecution. The notice sent to appellant at his last known address was returned undeliverable. Appellant has neither timely filed a brief nor requested an extension. See TEX. R. APP. P. 38.8(a)(1) (the appellate court may dismiss for want of prosecution for failure to file appellant's brief). Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal for want of prosecution. See TEX. R. APP. P. 38.8(a)(1), 42.3(b), 43.2(f). We dismiss all pending motions as moot.

PER CURIAM

Panel consists of Chief Justice Radack and Justices Kelly and Goodman. 2
