QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the appeal should be reinstated after the trial court complied with the abatement order by appointing appellate counsel.
2. Whether the appellate court should designate Daucie Schindler as appellant's appointed lead counsel under Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure 6.1(c) and 6.3.

HOLDINGS

1. Because the trial court entered an order appointing counsel to represent appellant on appeal, the Court of Appeals reinstated the case on its active docket.
2. The court directed its clerk to note Daucie Schindler as appointed lead counsel for appellant on the appellate docket after appellant filed notice designating her as new lead counsel.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Accordingly, we REINSTATE this case on the Court’s active docket.”

“Appellant’s brief is due to be filed in this appeal no later than 30 days from the date of this order.”

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The order concerns the representation of Fernando Guerrero in a pending criminal appeal. The trial court was directed to address appointed trial counsel's motion to withdraw and to appoint appellate counsel if necessary. The trial court appointed Scott C. Pope, after which Guerrero designated Daucie Schindler as new lead counsel.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On December 5, 2017, the court abated the appeal and remanded it to the 351st District Court of Harris County. The trial court entered an order on December 7, 2017, appointing Scott C. Pope to represent appellant on appeal. After appellant filed a January 8, 2018 notice designating Daucie Schindler as new lead counsel, the Court of Appeals reinstated the appeal and set a deadline for appellant's brief.
