QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the appellate record contained any arguable grounds for appeal requiring appointment of new counsel and further briefing under Anders v. California.
2. Whether the trial court's judgments should be affirmed after appellate counsel concluded that the appeal was frivolous and the court independently reviewed the record and the pro se response.

HOLDINGS

1. The court found no arguable issues supporting an appeal and therefore did not order appointment of new counsel to re-brief the case.
2. The trial court's judgments were affirmed.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“that the appeal is wholly frivolous and issue an opinion explaining that it has reviewed the record and finds no reversible error;” (at 2)

“that arguable grounds for appeal exist and remand the cause to the trial court so that new counsel may be appointed to brief the issues.” (at 2)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Arline was charged with indecency with a child by sexual contact and aggravated sexual assault of a child. The cases were consolidated for trial, and a jury convicted him of both offenses. The trial court assessed twenty years' imprisonment and a $100 fine in one cause and life imprisonment and a $100 fine in the other, ordering the sentences to run concurrently.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The two criminal causes were consolidated for trial in the 356th District Court of Hardin County. A jury convicted Arline of both offenses, and the trial court assessed concurrent sentences of twenty years and life imprisonment, plus fines. On appeal, counsel filed an Anders brief asserting that the appeal was frivolous, and the court reviewed the record and Arline's pro se response before affirming.

DISPOSITION

affirmed
